What's New!

New Books Display

A selection of recently received and cataloged books is on display in the Library entrance area -- an amazing array of subjects. You can see them online here.

You can also see if one of the new books is on your topic of interest by doing a search in the catalog, selecting "General Collection" and then "New Books" from the facet on the left. Or, you can simply narrow the "new books" set by selecting a subject from the facet on the left.

OAIster -- A Union Catalog of Digital Resources

Digital resources can range from an old-time advertisement of electric refrigerators from the Library of Congress American Memory project to Harriet Beecher Stowe's memoirs from the University of Michigan's Digital Library Making of America collection.

Access is provided by the State Library of Florida and is available through FirstSearch on the list of history databases or the A - Z Database list.
