8th Annual Great American
Jazz Piano Competition
Florida National Pavilion

The nation's most prestigious jazz piano competition kicks off the festival. Five finalists of a nationwide search for the best undiscovered jazz pianist compete for cash awards and top honors.

The distinguished panel of judges includes: Bunky Green, sax player, composer, arranger and president of the International Association of Jazz Educators; Helen Keane, highly respected manager and record producer; Dan Morgenstern, director of the Institute of Jazz Studies at Rutgers, jazz historian and author; Lindsey Sarjeant, director of Jazz Ensembles at Florida A&M University and arranger for the McDonald's All American High School Band; and Horace Silver, one of the all-time great bandleaders, composers and pianists.

Also enjoy a sneak preview performance by Metronom, an ensemble group from Murmansk, Russia.
