UNF--TRY IT! YOU'LL LIKE IT!

Richard Hirte, budget officer in administrative affairs, entered the winning slogan in the UNF bumper strip contest. Capitalizing on Alka Seltzer's million-dollar campaign, Richard's slogan "Try It, You'll Like It!", impressed the judges as being catchy and memorable--two important criteria for a bumper strip! Richard will receive two free passes to the beautiful Alhambra Dinner Theatre. The slogan will be adapted on a 3" by 9" bumper strip to be distributed throughout the area. Congratulations, Richard!!

DR. KIP ARTICULATES

Dr. Richard deR. Kip, chairman of the department of insurance, finance and land economics, has been named chairman of the special task force for the Articulation Coordinating Committee. The committee is responsible for carrying out the provisions of the Articulation Agreement between the state universities and public community colleges of Florida.

The task force will study the use of the College Level Evaluation Program (CLEP) and other similar programs. It is comprised of three persons from the community colleges and three from the university systems.

Dr. Kip is in Tallahassee today--articulating with the task force at Florida State University. Dr. Robert O. Lawton, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at FSU, is a member of Dr. Kip's group.

TWO NEW FACES

MRS. MARGARET DAVIS joined the staff as clerk-typist III in the Office of Planning and Evaluation. She attended Chicago Teachers College and worked with WAPE radio before coming to the UNF.

The O.P.S. position of editorial assistant in academic affairs has been filled by MRS. JUDITH EISEN. Mrs. Eisen has a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Washington.
