

what's happening

published biweekly by the division of student activities

Vol I No. 3

University of North Florida, Jacksonville, Florida

December 13, 1972

ROTC COMES TO UNF

An Army ROTC program will begin at UNF with the '73 winter quarter. The first course to be offered will be MIS 301, Leadership, in time block #8, on Thursdays only. Any student may register for the course.

Participants in ROTC must meet Army requirements to be eligible for the program benefits. In general, male students are eligible if they meet any one of four requirements.

Most veterans are eligible. One may also qualify by having completed basic Army ROTC. The basic program requires 2 years in college or 3 in high school. Those having completed 2 years at any US service academy may also qualify.

A basic summer camp will be offered this summer, successful completion will qualify students to enter the program next fall.

A variety of program benefits will be available. Program participants receive $100 a month while obtaining specialized military training. They may be considered for a full Army scholarship, and are eligible for commissioning upon graduation.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

SUPERBOX ARRIVES

"The SUPERBOX is here, announces Marty Weitso: of the University Book Store. Superbox is the "uncommon box with the utterly uncommon bargain inside." SUPERBOX, a complete assortment of personal care products put together and packaged with the student in mind, is not a bunch of samples to be used once and then thrown away. Most SUPERBOX items are regular retail size. All products are well known brands; value means nothing if the products aren't the best.

There's a SUPERBOX for men and one for women. Each contains over $5.00 worth of products, yet is available to students for a mere 99¢. Both for men and women will receive the new Gillette Trac II razor which alone makes the purchase of SUPERBOX a good deal.

The following items are in each SUPERBOX for men: Gillette Trac II razor, Edge shaving creme, Man-Power deodorant, Bufferin, MacLeans toothpaste Cepacol lozenges, and a Flair Hot Liner pen.

The following items are in each SUPERBOX for women: Gillette Trac II razor, Tame Creme Rinse, Soft and Dri deodorant, My Own Towelettes, Lemon Up shampoo and Cepacol lozenges.

FEEDBACK

Recently, UNF took its first advantage of presenting on campus a true example of what woman libbers talk of and despise the most; male chauvanism. For those of you who were too naive to pass or ignore this incident, I am speaking, of course, of the ring man, who on November 7 came to UNF to sell rings. However, it is in my opinion, that he was pushing something else.

I admit that I had no intention of buying a college ring, since I felt my high school ring would be sufficient throughout my adult years. I did, however, happen to stroll down to the ring displays of the ring man who set up shop in front of the administration building.

As I approached this place of business, I immediately noticed a large poster which would have normally been placed in a marine barracks. There, in life size and in living color, was what I can only describe as a true, perverted chauvanist's delight - a sensous, seductive, and curvy dark-eyed beauty wearing flimsy bedroom like attire. I say this because her garment, whatever it was, had thin spaghetti straps.

This "Sexie Sadie" had a subtle, inviting expression on her face which any normal being would take to mean as one thing. But the caption beside our beauty indicated her only stipulation to her inviting proposal, "Forget it... unless you're wearing a ***** ring".

Shortly after this experience, the ring man approached to ask me, "Would you like to buy a ring"? To which I replied, "No, because I'm not sure where my money will be going".

Seeing that rational discussion with this man was useless, I left him with the suggestion of a yearly, if not lifetime subscription to MS.

Denise Doris
College of Education

To The Editor,

Student Health Services wish to express their appreciation for the assistance given in medical emergencies by the UNF Public Safety Officers during our first quarter.

Their assistance rendered to students and staff not only involved physical help but very definite emotional support to our patients.

It is reassuring to know you are here with your teamwork and first aid training. A campus of 1,000 acres to cover is a tremendous job for your department and we appreciate your fine medical support.

Sincerely,
Geraldyn Ray RN
Vickie Brockus RN

Executive Editors.....Dale Clift
                                            ...George Tuskey
News Editor.....Doug Shaver
Art Editor.....George Dwelle
Activities Editor....Denise Doris
Feature Editor.....Barbara Keller
Business Manager.....Thomas Marks
Production Manager...Bonnie Ridge
Staff.....Catherine Allen
                                            .....Tom Page
                                            .....Steve Sutton
                                            .....Roberta Massengale
Advisor.....Mr. Michael Argento

Dear Editor,

In response to a problem presented in an earlier issue of this paper, extensive studies of the life habits of Trolls in the Green Cove Springs area have been conducted by this psychology major. I would like to publish my conclusions based on results of studies of 15 Trolls.

Trolls are not nocturnal in nature. They exist in a motile form from dawn till dusk with the mean conversion time being 28 minutes. Their natural state at night is in the form of limestone as is characteristic of this area, though a few claim to be granite. Diet consists of children under the age of ten or under 51 inches in height. Trolls have an extreme distaste of dogs who often cannot differentiate between limestone Trolls and fire hydrants. In conversations with the oldest Troll in Florida, who guards the Doctors Inlet Bridge, I found that Trolls are a dying race. Although food abounds, Trolls must have pure drinking water and clean air for reproduction to take place (would you believe it's by fragmentation?) lessons anyone?

Stephen T. Page III
Psychology Major

Art Corner

Dear Editor,

Probably one of the most controversial topics discussed among UNF students is the carrying of sidearms by our police officers. Many students fail to realize that the protective services rendered by UNF police are the same as those of Jacksonville Police Officers. Contrary to popular belief campus police are no longer security guards. As of July 1, 1972, campus police were required to meet the same specifications and take the same training as city police and thus were given the same authority. After talking to several students on the issue of sidearms, I realized that students usually associate the carrying of sidearms with killing. On the other hand our police force associates it with the protection of others. A police officer must be prepared to face any contingency he may encounter in performing his normal tour of duty. Crime has no boundaries or limitations. Past experience shows that major crimes have occurred on college campuses. Who's to say what might happen here? Hopefully we won't have any violence on our campus, but I am secure in knowing our force is ready should any incident occur. If a policeman had to use his weapon to save your life, how would you feel if he didn't have one?

Bonnie Ridge
Arts and Sciences

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA

OPEN HOUSE

SUNDAY
DECEMBER 17

1:30-3:30

BRING FAMILY AND FRIENDS

"THE BOOKSTORE WILL BE OPEN"

TO THE NEAREST LB.

(A bee sea d' one two three)

The hell happened on our golden voyage
Sailing to byzantium (you never were a sai
Even in a bar)

You lost voice when eden's tree
Let its branches hang heavy with symbolic
Purity and grew lame not with faces
With frowns

You attached your head to a teller's cage
Full of sleeping deserts and blind men
Falling dogs (It was day ripe for pulling Mytha from the sea)

How your head was turned (did I
Make you up) you left with nothing
Of the crown you sought (of Laurel and go Prefer the latter)

You fought (the hack who rang bulls and Bells gave hand) the Civil War
In a Paris Bookstore smoking a pen

And around those tragic Southern
Ruins you strolled converting the past
To theory near wire that missed only
Odors picking daisies (old men wouldn't Dare)

Spring is a pleasant time, time for showe
And giving how is it that we fearing livi
And die dying with winter about our feet

(So it is no more no less)

Byzantium on the far shore ended before
The eastern suns. You dozed badly
On the padded wall of a decaded
(The anger was strange but not the
Motive remember how plucked eyes
In exchange of gods)

I know you [red] well but not your name min
It never revise us a touch now of Humanity and to the side there who
Is she tell

OH so lovely harmony amid giants

(E through Z infinity)

A. A. Wood

HAPPENINGS

AND # THINGS

The Black Student Union will hold a meeting for all interested members on Friday, December 15, at 12:00 pm in room 1341.

The American Vital Organ Transplant Foundation is holding a Christmas Variety Show, December 23, in the Prudential Auditorium called "Operation Transplant." For further information please call 356-8113.

Effective January 2, 1973, ALL parking, traffic, and vehicle regulations cited in UNF Traffic Code 1972-73, are in full effect and will be enforced. Your attention and cooperation in following the regulations covered in the Traffic Code is greatly appreciated.

Students who have not signed a medical consent for emergency treatment on the student health statement, submitted with registration please stop by the health office. This signature is necessary on students over 21 years old. A parent or guardian must sign if under 21.

Been wanting to go to the movies, but don't have $2.50? Your bookstore is now selling guest admission tickets good for any Florida State Theatre until December 31, 1973. The cost is only $1.00. Go by and check it out!

Plans are already in progress for the 9th Summer School in Spain, in 1973. All persons interested should contact Dr. A. Doreste, Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois, 61201, for complete information.

A concert is planned for Wednesday, December 13, sponsored by the Ford Dealers Community Affairs Committee and the University of North Florida, Division of Student Activities and Fine Arts. The concert will be held at the Prudential Auditorium on Prudential Drive across from the Baptist Memorial Hospital at 8:00 pm.

FOR SALE: Motorola Stereo with 8 track tape player. A beautiful piece of furniture, in like new condition. $575.00. Call 733-6688 after 5:00 pm.

Any student, faculty member or administrator who has an announcement that they want placed in the newsletter, should bring it to the Student Activities Office, room 2401. All announcements should be typewritten. The announcements can be activities, items of interest, articles for sale, or rooms to rent, etc. Deadline for the next issue is Friday, December 22.

This public document was promulgated to inform students about student activities at UNF at an estimated cost of $320 annually or $.025 per copy.

HAVE A

HAPPY NEW YEAR.