New York: Gerry Mulligan, who hasn't fronted his own group for a number of years, brings his quartet into the Halfnote May 14-19. Following Stan Getz and the Monte Alexander Trio May 6-12. Appearing opposite Mulligan is the Zoot Sims Quartet. Another recruit to the Quartet is Paul Desmond, who joins in with his quartet May 21 for two weeks.

The Dizzy Gillespie Quartet and the Junior Mance Trio went up April 26. The band included trumpeter, trombonist, and sometimes soprano saxist Gene Roland, and tenorist Roy Eldridge at the Blue Note May 26. Joining in on vocals of the same night were Judy Canterino and the Apollo's Honey Cales. That same evening Cales, better known as a dancer, demonstrated he has lost none of his style when he did some smooth stepping at the opening of Bobby Hackett and Vic Dickenson at the Americans' Royal Box. On hand to welcome the sextet were, among others, Artie Shaw, John Hammond, Lee Konitz and Peter Dean.

The fourth of Jack Kleinsinger's Monday jam sessions at the Theater De Lys is set for May 14 with Clark Terry, Frank Wess, Chris White, Jim Hall, Sonny Stitt, and dancer Baby Laurence. It will be taped for future showings on Cable TV.

Jimmy Raney was at the Top of the Gate March 30-31 appearing opposite the Sonny Stitt Trio. Art D'Logg smartly hired Junior as soon as he heard the guitarist was in from Louisville. The Ahmad Jamal Trio is there through April 29. McCoy Tyner was at the Village Vanguard March 10. Rahsaan Roland Kirk is scheduled for May 1. Freddie Hubbard for the 15th Charles Mingus April 24 week was cancelled.

Herb Bushler were at Bradley's in March.

'Highlights in Jazz' Lives

Jack Kleinsinger's continuing "Highlights in Jazz" series fill the air with good vibrations that get better when the show an added dimension when he talk-danced his way through his history of jazz tap dancing, doing the "Shuffle" and "Sambas" and more. The audiences loved it all.
