Mandarin Garden Club will present competition winners at spring show

The Mandarin Garden Club will present its annual Spring Flower Show from 1-4 p.m. tomorrow at the clubhouse, 2892 Loretto Road.

This year's theme is "From Sea to Shining Sea." Besides the competition for artistic designs, there will be judging of patio plants, hanging baskets, cut flowers and others. An educational exhibit featuring the winning posters of the 1986 Environmental Essay/Poster competition will also be a part of the Spring Flower Show.

The competition, sponsored by the Mandarin Garden Club, was open to pupils of Loretto, Beauclerc and Crown Point Elementary Schools. First-, second- and third-place winners in both boys' and girls' categories were chosen from each school.

The first-place boy and girl from each school will be awarded a week's stay at the Florida Federation of Garden Club's Wekiva Youth Camp.

Prissy Bowers of the Wildling Garden Club will present a slide show of the life cycle of the Monarch butterfly.

Donna R. Steele and Mrs. D.A. Stanley are co-chairman of this year's event. Admission is free and refreshments will be served.
