HOME SHOW BOOTH

A "duty roster" for the UNF's booth at the upcoming Home and Patio Show will be posted on the bulletin board Tuesday morning. The Division of Public Relations will supply the booth with UNF literature, the architect's model of the buildings, and other visuals. If you do not have a UNF name tag and have volunteered to staff the booth, see Mrs. Rusty Stone and she will make one for you.

Incidentally, the memo to deans and directors regarding staffing of the booth erroneously indicated the show is at the Coliseum. It is at the Civic Auditorium.

COLOR SPREAD IN SUNDAY'S T-U

A limited quantity of the color spread on the UNF which appeared in Sunday's Times-Union/Journal is available in the Division of Public Relations. There also remain some copies of the color photo and story on the building carried last summer.

UNF FILM PREMIERE

The University's student recruitment film will be previewed by an audience of Jacksonville community leaders Monday afternoon at the Alhambra Dinner Theatre. President Carpenter and the executive council will be on hand to answer questions, then there will be a brief visit to the building site. Mr. Hilton Meadows, director of physical facilities, will describe development of the campus for the visitors during the bus trip from the theatre to the building.

ON THE COMMUNITY COLLEGE CIRCUIT

Dr. William Wharton, assistant dean of faculties for community college relations, has arranged a series of visits in the coming weeks to some 11 community colleges throughout the state for the UNF's department chairmen. Purpose of the visits is to acquaint the chairmen with their counterparts, to visit classes and talk with students, and to familiarize the chairmen with the nature of Florida's community colleges. The first trip will be to nearby Daytona Beach Junior College Wednesday.

RETURN BOOKS

As part of the termination procedures, Personnel will check with the Library before releasing the last check to terminated employees. Some employees have been leaving without returning books. Each department should encourage employees to return library books before leaving. Your assistance is appreciated.

VALENTINE

KIDS

The Duval County Teachers Credit Union is sponsoring a Valentine Card contest for children from age 5 to age 13. See the poster on the bulletin board for details.

AND SOME BAD
NEWS
