FOREWORD

The 1991 University Statistical Abstract (USA) Fall Supplement is a collection of reports utilizing preliminary information for the current Fall term. Institutional Research has selected the abstract reports requested earlier and more frequently and placed them in this document to meet informational needs associated with Institutional, College, and Unit planning.

It should be noted that while information concerning the 1990-91 Academic year is final, all Fall 1991 data has been taken from preliminary files and may therefore differ from the final figures published in next year's USA.

Any need for more specific data should be forwarded to the Office of Institutional Research. Suggestions concerning the format and content are most welcome so that this document can best serve the reporting and planning needs of our faculty, staff and students.
