STUDENT ACTIVITIES BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED TO UNF STUDENT, THE LATE LENNY BURNS

Lenny knew he was going to die—young. He was 28. He had lived with that knowledge a long time. One believed when listening to Lenny that he, like Emily Dickinson, considered death a gentleman and a friend, one who would kindly release him eventually from the pain which he knew too well.

But few of his closest friends were aware of this for Lenny was not morbid—he was very much alive and involved with life, all life. Any complaints he made were not of his own personal problems; they concerned the needs of others. During his years as a student here, he was deeply involved with all areas of student concern. He cared.

Now, UNF will pay a fitting tribute to Lenny for his efforts on behalf of its students by dedicating the entire Student Activities Complex to him. This idea which will find its culmination here began with Joe Smyth, presently SGA President, and Lon Thomas, a fellow SGA member with Lenny and his close friend.

Joe took the idea to Dr. George Corrick, vice president of university advancement, who also felt it a fitting tribute. So, after much planning and work by other UNF personnel, a plaque will be placed near the entrance of the Student Activities Office in Building 10 honoring Leonard Burns, an ordinary human being who left an extraordinary legacy of courage in the memories of all who knew him; whose sense of humor was outstanding, and who never judged another person by any standard rules.

When the new Student Center is completed, the plaque

CEREMONIES HELD FOR 400 UNF GRADUATES

The campus of UNF was the setting in which approximately 400 students accepted their Baccalaureate and Masters degrees in their chosen fields on June 17. It was a beautiful and moving ceremony with even the weather on its best behavior.

Vice President and Dean of Faculties Dr. Roy L. Lassiter Jr. gave a brief, interesting speech to the UNF community

UNF ART SHOWS

Art shows coming to the UNF library commons have been announced for the summer months.

Beginning June 27 the students of Art Professor Charles will exhibit their paintings of the 1976-77 school year. This show will continue through July 15.

Joanne Overdorff, currently a candidate for a Masters degree in education will display her paintings and pastel drawings from July 18-29.

Finishing the summer exhibits will be a UNF student photography show. The works that will include this art form are by students of Professor Porter.

that was also his farewell speech. Lassiter left for a new position in Tennessee at the end of June.

After the ceremony a lovely reception was held, catered by Servomation. Long tables were arranged on three sides of the dimly lit courtyard. One held an illuminated silver punch fountain, platters of assorted cookies and crystal compotes filled with nuts and mints. Other tables were decorated with crystal punch bowls. Many stayed for the reception and enjoyed the convivial atmosphere.

The evening before, many attended another impressive event, UNF's Awards ceremony, in which exceptional academic achievements were officially recognized. A lovely reception also followed this event, hosted by the UNF Alumni Association.

Each commencement shows that UNF is growing fast, not only in the size of each graduating class, but in the fields of study included. Last June, the field of Technology was added and this June the field of Nursing and a Masters degree in Counseling.

Congratulations graduates.

Lenny Burns

will be transferred too; a permanent symbol of one man's determination, ability and tolerance toward others.

His words speak clearly of who and what he was:
"If someday we find that we've run out of time,
We won't need to beg for more,
We'll simply toast the last of the wine,
And remember the good time before."

"The continuation, the fulfillment, the completeness of a person, is how I view heaven."

THELMA CRIBBS TO LEAVE STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Thelma Cribbs

Over the years people develop friendships that take on the air of what can only be described as "family." Thelma Cribbs, past editor of the North Star and of the publications of the Student Activities Office including the Campus Update, Student

CAMPUS UPDATE FINAL EDITION

The Campus Up-Date will no longer exist as a regular publication after this issue. It has been UNF's window on campus events for almost a year, being a type of "interim newspaper" between the demise of the Halyard and the birth of the Spinnaker.

The staff extends its thanks to all who made this opportunity to serve the UNF community possible. Our thanks also to those faithful advertisers who helped to make the publication a self-supporting success.

Above all, thanks to all the UNF offices, departments, clubs and individuals who contributed articles and other items of interest. After all, who can have a party if no one attends? And those people were our most welcome guests.

The staff has sincerely enjoyed the experience of compiling and putting together this publication in the interest of the students, faculty and staff of the University.

Assistant's Handbook, Student Handbook and the Student Calendar, has been one that has enhanced the "family" of the Student Activities Office.

Thelma graduated in June of 1976 with a degree in Literature. She has been working under a grant from the SGA that is completed this summer, and will be going to a new job soon.

There were hundreds of hours of work and mental devotion that she spent preparing the yearbook and digging fact from rumor and "setting things straight" for student information in the Campus Update. These things she can cherish, both for the memory and for the outstanding products for her portfolio as she leaves.

Thelma has been named to Whos Who in American Colleges and Universities, the Dean's List and Honors Award at North Fla. Junior College and the President's Scholarship at UNF. She participated in the Psychology Club and was club president in 1975, and participated in the UNF Democrats, Sawmill Slough, The Literature clubs; and the Student Activities Advisory Entertainment, the A & S Budget, Food Service, Elections, Commencement and Interclub Council Activities Committees. She was a member of the first student government, the General Assembly, and later of the Student Government Association.

The Office of Student Activities will not be the same after her departure. Students will have to begin using a dictionary again instead of relying on "Thelma, how do you spell..." to finish their term papers, and we will now have to make some decisions on our own like whether or not to wear golashes on rainy days.

The University and particularly the staff of Student Activities wishes Thelma the best of luck and we want to grant you one wish as you leave: "May you always be able to keep track of your glasses."

★ VETERANS NOTICE ★

The Office of Veterans Affairs has this reminder for veterans concerning their progress at UNF: "The Veterans Administration disallows payments for extraneous course work or for work that is not used in completion of the approved program. As "W's" and repeated grades are not used in the UNF GPA, the payee will normally be required to repay funds received for such work. Because of this jeopardy UNF no longer employs "W's" and repeated grades in computing "progress." The VA will be notified that a student is making unsatisfactory progress when over four unsatisfactory grades are completed ("I's" carried more than one term or "F's"). Based upon this notification the Veterans Administration will probably suspend payment until the matter is clarified to their satisfaction.

Spinnaker

SPINNAKER TO SET SAIL ACROSS CAMPUS

What is a Spinnaker?

Soon Spinnakers will be flying all around the campus and they will be filled to the edges with good things, like information, news, and events. The Spinnaker, you see, is UNF's new newspaper.

This paper will provide a service to the campus community while at the same time providing valuable experience for those interested in a career in journalism. Volunteers are still being accepted, so if you have time, talent, and enthusiasm, and are really interested in working on a newspaper, the Spinnaker will welcome you aboard.

Bill Skutt, advisor to the Spinnaker staff, will be happy to talk with anyone about ways they can help the Spinnaker set sail. Presently on board are: Ric Johns—editorial editor; Patti Levine—acting managing editor and news editor; Karen Bowling—production manager; and Suzanne Rothlesberger—advertising manager and business manager.

The first edition of the Spinnaker is expected to come down the ways in mid July; it will be published on a bi-weekly basis during the Summer Quarter. With freshening breezes this fall the Spinnaker will proceed at full speed, dispatching cargo each week. We look forward to its launching and wish the Spinnaker fair winds in it's sail.

SKILLS CENTER CORNER

It's not too late to participate in many of the FREE courses being offered by the Academic Enrichment and Skills Center. Current opportunities include study skills and communications skills workshops; tutoring in reading, writing, and other subject areas; and self-hypnosis groups, sponsored by Counseling Services. Another offering, the Second Time Around Group, is especially for the student who is returning to the academic world after a prolonged absence.

Make it a point to stop by the Center. The staff will be happy to show you around and to explain the many resources available to students. If you have suggestions or requests for additional services, please let us know. Building 001/1529, 646-2766.

Roll Up Your Sleeves For Volunteer Jacksonville

As members of the UNF and Jacksonville community we are fortunate to have an educational opportunity which allows us to roll up our sleeves and put our skills and talents to work. Volunteer Jacksonville, Inc. is here to help us help others.

Volunteers are wanted and needed for many tasks. For instance, clerical skills can work wonders in answering phones, typing, filing, keeping records or stuffing envelopes. Though these are not glamorous, they are needed and necessary services.

Could you help the aging with craft activities or with the community nutrition program for the senior citizens, become a docent in a local museum, instruct in art or painting, assist in day care, be a Big Brother or Big Sister, prepare lunch for children in the Head Start program, or assist in the shelter for abused children?

The need for counseling skills is enormous; so is the need to help in jails or hospitals with crisis situations; to mediate inter personal conflicts and to provide counseling through the Hot Line service.

These things can be accomplished if we help. Those we serve will benefit, so will we. Volunteer.

THE S.A.M. SCENE

July is a busy month for the Society for the Advancement of Management. Plans are now in the making for one fantastic "S.A.M. Week", so stay tuned. We would like to welcome all new members to our organization and encourage everyone to participate in the upcoming events. If you are not yet an official S.A.M. member, now is the time to join. Get Involved in your University, in your community. Active interaction with fellow classmates and the surrounding business environment—that's what S.A.M. is all about. Membership applications can be obtained from current S.A.M. officers.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Join the rush, make new friends, and be in on the fun. Any woman interested in Fall Rush (Sept. 19-26) please contact any Zeta or the Student Activities Office.

Our President, Kathy Evans, was fortunate to represent UNF and Zeta on Channel 12's "Insight" program aired June 6th.

Our end-of-the-year party was a huge success. A backyard cookout was held by the river and was enjoyed by all.

Susan Dekle, charter member of Zeta and Moses Skaff will be married on July 9th. Our congratulations, Susan and Moses!

"...brittle...hard... and kinda fun to watch. Tony Curtis and Golan makes us feel for this 'Jewish Mafia' kingpin..." William Albright—the Houston Post.

Lepke will be shown Friday, July 15 in the auditorium of Building Nine at 7:45 p.m. The admission is free.

ICAC

There will be an ICAC meeting in the Coffeehouse, Building Nine at 12 noon July 12. All Club representatives please plan to attend.

GOOD NEWS FELLOWSHIP

Good news is coming to UNF. A Good News Fellowship will be meeting in the Cafeteria courtyard Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 8:30 a.m. All interested are invited to attend.

SAWMILL SLOUGH

The Sawmill Slough's Annual Summer Party will be held Saturday, July 9th, at 6 p.m. We will have plenty of boiled shrimp—your admittance is a covered dish. (BYOB)

The location is 555 Beach Ave., Atlantic Beach. See Sue in the Health Office for further details. Come and enjoy an evening of fun and games!

HAPPY FACE

'The time has come the Walrus said'; and it has. Were it not for my naturally optimistic disposition, there would be big tears runnin' down Ol' Happy Face's cheeks. You see, I won't be chattin' with you all on these pages anymore cause this is the last issue of the Update.

The Spinnaker needs the wind from our sails to help fill hers. And that's okay—we wish her bon voyage and a long smooth sail.

But I'll be around—mostly down at ye ol' Boathouse—so look for me there, cause I'll be lookin' for you.

Until then—Auf Wiedersehen.
