My dear little Archie:-

I sent you this afternoon a book for your birthday. I hope you will like. Mamma misses you very much indeed and wishes she could see you. She hopes you will have a happy birthday - I shall think of you a great many times on Monday.

Gracie has not come home yet I think I shall have to send for her.

Baby sister can almost walk she takes two or three steps alone and then very carefully sits down.

With a great deal of love

Mamma
