Special Concert in Honor of UNF's 25th Anniversary

Bill Brown & Gerson Yessin

UNF founding members

William Brown, tenor
Gerson Yessin, piano

present a concert of vocal and piano performances. William Brown will present "Songs of the World," favorite Broadway tunes by Richard Rodgers, an aria, Afro-Centric art songs, and African American Spirituals. Just as geniuses such as Gershwin wrote the "Rhapsody in Blue" and Chopin the "Ballade in G Minor" at age 25, so too has UNF achieved excellence at the quarter century mark. Gerson Yessin will perform these works and also "Three Preludes," a piano composition by UNF's own Bunky Green dedicated to Gerson Yessin. Concluding the concert will be a humorous set of piano variations on the "Anniversary Waltz" in the styles of Mozart, Chopin, and Beethoven, respectively, in honor of UNF's 25th anniversary year.
