

The Jacksonville Historical Society and The National Conference for Community and Justice join in ceremony for a

Florida Historic Site Marker Unveiling

Tuesday, August 27, 2002
5:15 p.m. in Hemming Plaza

Commemorating the August 27, 1960
Civil Rights Demonstration in downtown Jacksonville

Welcome	Emily Lisska, Executive Director Jacksonville Historical Society
Invocation	The Rev. Rudolph McKissick, Sr. Bethel Baptist Institutional Church
Remarks	Chris Verlander, NCCJ Board Chair
Introduction of special guests	Council President Jerry Holland Local dignitaries William H. Jeter and members of the law firm Ford, Jeter, Bowlus, Duss, Morgan, Kenney & Safer, P.A.
Comments	Dr. James Crooks
Reflections	Rodney Hurst Alton Yates
Closing Remarks	Laura D'Alisera, NCCJ Executive Director

Reception following at the historic Seminole Club
We thank our hosts for the reception, Doug Milne and the Seminole Club.

~ ~ ~

*with special appreciation to the law firm of Ford, Jeter, Bowlus, Duss, Morgan, Kenney & Safer, P.A.
for underwriting acquisition costs of the marker*