DR. CORRICK ON EDUCATION PANEL

Dr. George W. Corrick, dean of university relations and development, was one of four area college administrators who participated in a panel discussion this noon at the Arlington Council Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Holiday Inn across the street.

Dr. Corrick reviewed the impact of colleges in Arlington and the whole Jacksonville area with Dr. Kermit Miller of Florida Junior College, Dean Richard Salter of Jones College and Don Ames of Jacksonville University.

Moderator for the discussion was Harold Baker, news director for Channel 12 television.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS OUT

President Carpenter participated in a panel discussing the educational needs of the Jacksonville area at the meeting of the Civic Round Table this noon at Strickland's restaurant.

Dr. Carpenter was asked to speak to the group with four other local college presidents: Dr. Jack H. Jones, Jones College; Dr. Robert Spiro, Jacksonville University; Dr. William B. Stewart, Edward Waters College; and Dr. Benjamin R. Wygal, Florida Junior College at Jacksonville.

DR. RUSSELL
AFRICA BOUND

Dr. Samuel Russell, chairman of the department of vocational and technical education, will be leaving a week from today for a three-week study tour of Kenya, Africa.

Dr. Russell will be acting as a consultant in vocational and technical education with the Florida A. and M. University project in Kenya. He will be responsible for making a comprehensive study of conditions and needs and writing a proposal dealing with that part of the project involving vocational and technical education. Other phases of the project will include agriculture, health, economics and perhaps road engineering.

FOUNDATION

meeting, Feb. 28.

The executive committee of the UNF Foundation Inc. met last night in the conference room to review plans for Foundation activities to be acted upon at the next Foundation Board Present at the meeting last night were Dr. Thomas Carpenter, Dr. George W. Corrick, executive director of the Foundation; Dr. Thad Moseley, president of the Foundation; Roland S. Kennedy, executive vice president of the Barnett Bank of Jacksonville and vice president of the Foundation; and Walter A. Ketcham, general manager of Southern Bell Telephone Co. J. J. Daniel, president of Stockton, Whatley, Davin and Company, also a member, was out of the city.

The UNF Foundation Inc. is a non-profit organization comprised of 14 area business and civic leaders. The Foundation serves to enlist advice and support for the UNF among the community and is a legal vehicle to encourage private gift support. Immediate goal of the Foundation is student financial aid support for UNF students.

FOUNDATION BOARD
MEMBER HONORED Wesley C. Paxson, president of Paxson Electric Co., and one of the men most influential in forming the UNF Foundation Inc., was honored last week by the Sales and Marketing Executives of Jacksonville.

Mr. Paxson was recognized for his "outstanding management and accomplishments in commerce and industry." He was one of five local businessmen so honored.

NEW FACES Information systems has a new student assistant, ROBERT CROFOOT, a student at Florida Junior College. He is a terminal operator.

EDDIE FANN is the new face in the supply and duplicating room. He will be the duplicating equipment operator. Eddie was with Daylight Grocery Inc. before joining the UNF staff.

The library's new clerk-typist is MRS. CHERYL S. WILSON, who previously worked with the City of Jacksonville.

NOTE OF THANKS The following is a message from Mrs. Doris Wilson and her family:

"My family and I would like to express our sincere appreciation for the kindness and concern shown during my husband's illness and at his death. Thank you for the beautiful flowers, and for your cards and letters which have meant so much to us. The kindness and concern shown by each of you will always be remembered."

BELATED NOTICE Mrs. Nancy Hill received a letter last week expressing the appreciation of the Division of Family Services for the UNF staff's effort in helping the family at Christmas. It is posted on the bulletin board.
