WILLIAM BROWN

Distinguished Professor, 1993

Internationally acclaimed concert, opera and recording artist, William Brown has performed with major musical organizations throughout the Western Hemisphere. His operatic dates include the New York City Opera Company, Baltimore, Florentine, Goldowsky Opera Theater, Rochester, Opera Ebony, Berkshire and Blossom Music Festivals and others. Symphonic dates include New York Philharmonic, Boston, Cleveland, Chicago Sinfonietta, London, Royal, Helsinki, Prague National, Mexico Philharmonic, American Symphony Orchestra. His recordings include CBS (Sony), London, New World Records, CRI Records, and Musical Heritage Society. His recording of "Carmina Burana" with Robert Shaw conducting the Atlanta Symphony for the Telarc label met with world wide critical acclaim. He also made the historic recording of Virgil Thompsons "Four Saints in Three Acts" for Nonesuch Records and Louis Gruenberg's "Creation" for the Gunmar label with Gunther Schuller conducting. Every important twentieth century African American composer has dedicated compositions to Mr. Brown. Brown is an avid performer of twentieth century music, performing with all the major contemporary music ensembles in the U. S. He is a charter member of the Black Music Repertory Ensemble Chicago, IL, and holds an honorary doctorate from Bridgewater College, MA.

GERSON YESSIN

Distinguished Professor, 1986

In addition to more than thirty-five appearances with the Boston Pops Orchestra, he has been heard as soloist with other major orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic, the Boston Symphony, and the San Francisco Symphony. In addition to recording Bartok's Sonata for Two Pianos and Percussion with Leopold Stokowski, Yessin has made numerous recordings. He has given piano teachers workshops throughout the United States, including national and regional Music Teacher conventions. He received his B. S. and M. S. degrees from the Juilliard School and his D.Mus. from Florida State University.
