PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO PILOT CLUB

President Carpenter will address the Palatka Pilot Club Friday, Feb. 25, at a double anniversary celebration. The club is celebrating the 50th anniversary of the International Pilot Club and the Palatka Club's 15th.

The Pilot Club is a civic-service organization for executive and professional women. With basic principles of service and friendship, Pilot now has more than 16,000 members in clubs in the U.S.A., Bermuda, Canada, England, France and Japan.

SISTER CITY'S LIBRARY OPEN

A reference library of publications and periodicals on Bahia Blanca, Argentina, has been established by the city's Information Services Division in City Hall.

The library includes booklets on commerce and industry in Bahia Blanca, Jacksonville's sister city, and books on travel and universities in Argentina. Copies of Bahia Blanca's daily newspaper, La Nueva Provincia, are also available. Space has been provided in Room 107, City Hall, for students and other interested citizens to read the publications. Remember, it's all in Spanish!

NEW FACES

NORMAN R. HALTIWANGER has joined the UNF staff as wage and salary coordinator in the personnel department. He attended Jacksonville University and previously was with Gulf Life Insurance Co.

The registrar's office has a new face too. MRS. JULIA MITCHELL has been added as clerk-typist II. Mrs. Mitchell attended FJC and was with the Afro-American Life Insurance Co. before joining the UNF.

MARINER INPUT SLOWING

The pace is quickening as we approach opening which is probably part of the reason for the slowdown in news input for the Mariner. Don't make up news, but please help us keep open the communications between staff members by keeping us posted on information which should be known by all UNFers.

Bring all items to Jackie Briggs in the division of public relations by 5:00 P.M. the Thursday before you wish to have it printed.

XEROX SERVICE Starting Monday morning at 9:00, Eddie Fann in the supply room will provide a Xeroxing service for all department secretaries. He will pick up material to be Xeroxed at 9:00 A.M. and 1:00 P.M. every day and deliver finished Xerox copies at 10:00 and 2:00.

Emergency cases will be done on an individual basis. This procedure should eliminate the waiting and delays at the Xerox machine.
