AACTE MEMBERSHIP FOR THE UNF

The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education conferred associate membership on the University of North Florida College of Education at its national conference in Chicago Thursday (Feb. 24).

Dr. Ellis F. White, dean of the College of Education; Dr. Andrew Robinson, assistant dean; and Dr. Richard McArdle, chairman of the department of secondary education, were on hand to accept the AACTE membership.

Dr. White said he anticipated that full membership would be conferred as soon as the UNF is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

SOCIOLOGY CHAIRMAN ON EDITORIAL BOARD

Dr. J. Carroll Simms, chairman of the department of sociology, has been appointed to the editorial board of Teaching Sociology by Professor Murray A. Straus, editor. He also has accepted an invitation from Prof. Straus to do a review symposium on a number of volumes which he has found helpful in teaching undergraduate courses in research methodology.

WAGE-PRICE FREEZE VICTIMS, REJOICE!

The personnel department has been notified by the Chancellor's Office that the request for retroactive pay increases for those eligible for one during the Wage-Price Freeze (Aug. 15-Nov. 14) has been approved. For all you lucky ones, checks should be coming in about two weeks. Any questions? See Mr. Wilson in the personnel department.

A FINAL (?) NOTE ABOUT THOSE W-2'S

Please review your revised W-2 to be sure that it shows the FICA taxable wages as $7,800.00 and the FICA taxes as $405.60 before filing your return. We have received word that there were a few errors involving the FICA taxable wages and taxes, and that for those people having erroneous W-2's, the state intends to reissue them as soon as possible. If you have any questions, please see the controller.

DR. BAGGETT'S
GETTING AROUND

Tuesday, Feb. 29, Dr. William Baggett, dean of students, will be addressing the Jacksonville Sertoma Club. He will discuss the UNF over breakfast at the Town House restaurant.

Later that same day, Dr. Baggett will be the guest of Walt Disney World in Orlando for the College Placement Directors' Day. This day was set aside to discuss employment opportunities which will be available at Walt Disney World. The meetings will carry over into the next day, when Dr. Baggett may tour the area free of charge.

CATALOGS OFF
THE PRESSES

The University of North Florida's most important and long awaited publication, Part One of the Catalog, will be off the presses next week. Abundant with photographs of staff and "students", the Catalog includes general information about UNF academic policies, student services, and major programs.

HOMEWARD BOUND

Two UNF staffers are going "home" to spread the word about the UNF to childhood friends and neighbors next week. W. G. "Jack" Winstead, director of purchasing, and C. Ward Hancock, director of administrative services, will speak to the Palatka Rotary Club, Tuesday, Feb. 29. Both Mr. Winstead and Mr. Hancock grew up in Palatka and are considered "favorite sons" of the city.

TRANSPORTATION
PROGRAMS GIVEN
BOOST

The Jacksonville Traffic Club has favored the UNF Foundation with a donation toward the funding of a promotional brochure for transportation programs for high school and junior college students. In cooperation with FJC and Dr. Warren Rose's department of transportation and logistics, the brochure will make known the career opportunities open in the transportation field.

MRS. WALKER
ON THE MOVE

Mrs. Nancy Walker, staff assistant to Dr. Jim Dungan in the Office of Planning and Evaluation, is transferring to the Office of Administrative Affairs. Mrs. Walker will be staff assistant to Dean Jim Haywood effective Feb. 25. She had previously worked with Dean Haywood when he was the controller.

UNF STAFF PLUS ONE

Only one new face this week. DENISE JENKINS has joined the work force in the purchasing department as clerk-typist. Denise attended Massey Business College and was with University Hospital before coming here.

WOMETCO WOMAN TO TAKE OVER

Beginning Monday, a Wometco hostess will be here between the hours of 8:30 and 3:00 to sell coffee, doughnuts and sandwiches. This is being done on a trial basis and your cooperation in supporting this will be appreciated.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT..
OR FOR PUBLIC
NOTICE

This is to notify all those who teased, snickered, punned and heckled certain members of the staff of the Division of Public Relations concerning an oft-published amount of money due the purchasing department for coffee consumed.

We're all paid up! Our debt to the ever-hungry coffee fund has been settled.
