1-13-1918

Letter: Wesley Bouslog to Opal Valentine Baker, January 13, 1918

Wesley Bouslog

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unf.edu/johnston_text

Part of the European History Commons, Military History Commons, and the United States History Commons
My Only Valentine:

Received your letter dated the 13th and postmarked the same. For one time I thought this to be a trick, but the Postmark stamped clear.

I hope you were able to go to the store Saturday, your arrival having to mind. I admit that you are always willing to mind
you, however never had to mind me. Did you? Your way was always mine. So I was the one that minded.

Ha! Easy however to obey your orders, whatever they may be.
You were, however, a nice man, you never gave any orders and it is very easy to obey your orders.

Your Speak of the Warm Days
here, Correct it are? But oh?
It needs to be all the pleasure.
out of the warm days. An over.
WITH THE COLORS

Wit for everyone? I have told you what I know as many times as I can. I am getting data as far as anywhere.

I will not go confidential any more, but don't lose me.

I am sure that I am going to France before any of the rest of us boys. Indications are such I do not think I will leave the U.S. for a while, and I am confident that I will receive instructions at least weeks training. Send any work before I leave.

Don't get too busy. Don't over work. But do what you can. In any case don't throw away a good thing.

I am writing to keep in touch with you... that night? If those scales weighed correctly— you sure had some real luck— fellow.
Ha! Ha! You sure ought to run a home with some good looking woman. Ha, ha! Yet perhaps you're weighed yourself off when stripped in the bedroom, and then weighed yourself when dressed next morning. This may be quite possible. The difference must have been in the clothes.
Again coming to your patriotism! I also believe the 4 out of order. But if Congress is all so far away, that I can't tell when it would be available to us. Quite likely, if I were there, I could tell. I never could. Ha, ha!
How is Dallas? The crush is very heavy at home yet.
Tell them I am well. I met your father.
Tell 'em that.
"With the Colors"

... had waited for the army... if he asked why tell him that it would be easier to do so that to stay at home and for the rest of his life be trying to explain why he didn't... that would never make him stagger... when we troop... we will have to... explanations to make... perhaps... on Hughes... but he always... made his perfect and now when... time comes to make them good... perhaps... perhaps... I... how... to cheer the heroes... and... will arrive by 30... more and think that I will... retire down now 8PM... if... were... hip... would... likely be putting on that large chair... won't it at my...
We'll cheer up for 19 men out of every 18 that go abroad will return. These figures are the result of British statistics and will apply to America as well.

As a soldier too, I know that care and America will be strong if it just the same as her brave. Hoping this finds you recovering from your patience spell and according you that I am much better.

P.S. Pleasant dreams and all.