CLANZEL T. BROWN AWARD

ABOUT THE AWARD: Clanzel T. Brown, Sr. was President of the Jacksonville Urban League from 1965-1982. A real "doer" and achiever, his battles against poverty, oppression, and injustice were aimed at improving the lives of all people, regardless of color or creed. The results of his efforts were lauded both locally and nationally.

Clanzel T. Brown, Sr. became increasingly convinced that the key to the future was through economic development to open all levels of education, training and corporate employment. From direct on-the-job experience, he knew the meaning of achievement through hard work. Mr. Brown set high goals and achieved them. Because he never faltered in his efforts for the betterment of his community, his life became a beacon in the lives of those that follow.

RECIPIENTS OF AWARD: Rodney L. Hurst, Sr.
Lt. Col. (Ret.) Alton Yates

WHITNEY M. YOUNG

NATIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

ABOUT THE AWARD: Whitney M. Young, Jr. was an articulate U.S. civil rights leader who spearheaded the drive for equal opportunity for blacks in U.S. industry and government service during his 10 years as head of the National Urban League (1961-71), the world's largest social-civil rights organization. His advocacy of a "Domestic Marshall Plan"—massive funds to help solve America's racial problems—was felt to heavily influenced federal poverty programs in Washington, D.C. (1963-69).

Appointed Executive Director of the National Urban League in 1961, Young developed an impressive reputation as a national black activist who helped bridge the gap between white political and business leaders and poor blacks and militants.

RECIPIENT OF AWARD: Willie E. Gary

OUR MOVEMENT

The Jacksonville Urban League was founded in 1947. We are a nonprofit, nonpartisan, community-based organization affiliated with the National Urban League, Inc., which was founded in 1910 and is headquartered in New York City. The Urban League movement consists of more than 100 professionally staffed affiliates in over 35 states and the District of Columbia, providing direct services to more than 2 million people nationwide through programs, advocacy and research.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Jacksonville Urban League is to enable African Americans and others to secure economic self-reliance, parity, power and civil rights.

JACKSONVILLE URBAN LEAGUE STRATEGY

The Jacksonville Urban League employs a three-pronged strategy, our 3E Strategy that is embedded in the National Urban League strategy listed below:
