A TRIP TO FLORIDA FOR HEALTH AND SPORT: THE LOST 1855 NOVEL OF CYRUS PARKHURST CONDIT
Edited and with an Introduction by Maurice O'Sullivan and Wenxian Zhang

More than eighty years before Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings published The Yearling, Cyrus Parkhurst Condit wrote this coming-of-age novel about a teenage boy in Florida who learns to hunt, builds a fence, and takes a fawn as a pet. Undiscovered and unpublished until now, this engaging story is historically significant as one of the first Florida novels ever written. Fascinating historical and literary context is provided by the editors.

Paperback $14.95

PALMETTO COUNTRY
Stetson Kennedy
Stetson Kennedy collected folklore and oral histories throughout Florida for the WPA between 1937 and 1942. The result was this classic Florida book, back in print for the first time in twenty years with an Afterword update and dozens of historic photographs never before published with this work. Alan Lomax said, "I doubt very much that a better book about Florida folklife will ever be written."
