DR. MCLAUGHLIN
TO ADDRESS
THE NAVY

Dr. Frank S. McLaughlin, chairman of the department of management, marketing, and business law, will speak to a group of civilians and military management personnel at the Jacksonville NAS April 13. He will discuss the UNF program, with special emphasis on the management program to be offered.

UNIVERSITY
SEAL JEWELRY
AVAILABLE

A notice in an earlier Mariner indicated a deadline of March 27 for purchase of the University jewelry at a special price. Now that Mr. Weitsen, our bookstore manager, is on staff, he will continue to take orders. The prices are as follows:

Tie Tac	$2	plus	tax
Charm	2	"	"
Ladies pin	2	"	"
Cufflinks	3	"	"

All articles are replicas of the UNF seal. See Mr. Weitsen in the purchasing department to place your orders. Make checks out to the University of North Florida and attach your social security number. If you have already placed your order, please turn in your checks with your S. S. number to complete the order file.

NEW FACES

MRS. MARY (MARTY) RETZER has joined the staff of the division of university relations and development as clerk-typist III. Mrs. Retzer was previously a secretary-receptionist with Arthur Young and Company.

Taking Candy Carter's place in the personnel department as clerk-typist II, is SHIRLEY RAFUSE, a graduate of Florida Junior College. Shirley was with the Duval County School Board before coming to the UNF.

The new face in the finance and accounting department is MRS. JOYCE BROSETT, accountant II. Mrs. Brossett earned her bachelor's degree from Xavier University of Louisiana and was previously with Atlanta University as Financial Aid Director.

The registrar's office has two new faces on its staff. MRS. JUNE GANDY, clerk II, and MRS. JONNIE PAGE, clerk III. Mrs. Gandy attended Florida Junior College and went on to the University of West Florida for one year. She was a transcript clerk at Jacksonville University before joining the UNF. Mrs. Page came to the UNF from WJKS-TV.

FLY THROUGH ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

All UNF staff should arrange for business air travel through the division of administrative services unless circumstances prevent this. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

UNF STAFFERS
EVALUATE TAMPA
HIGH SCHOOL

Applying their knowledge of school curricula and programs, three College of Education staffers evaluated the Tampa Bay Vocational-Technical High School March 27-30.

Dr. Andrew Robinson, assistant dean of the College of Education, chaired the evaluation committee. Dr. Samuel Russell, chairman of the department of vocation-technical education, and Dr. Nell Kannwischer, chairman of the division of studies in education were also on the team.

UNF WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS

The April meeting of the UNF Women's Club will be held April 13, at the home of Mrs. Jack Natcher, 10875 High Ridge Road. Coffee will be served at 9:30 a.m. with the meeting starting at 10.

DR. YESSIN
TO DO AN ENCORE

Dr. Gerson Yessin, chairman of the department of fine arts, will again perform the Rhapsody in Blue with the Jacksonville Symphony in a complete repeat of the all-Gershwin program. The concert is scheduled for Tuesday, April 11, at 8:30 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium and is free to the public.

COKE BOTTLES
MUST BE RETURNED

University family members who are using the Chamber of Commerce's bottle Coke machine will have to be more conscientious in the future. The Chamber does not mind our using the machine as long as we return the empty bottles to the racks provided. Without the bottles, the Cokes cannot be replaced. Please don't leave the bottles on desk tops and in the lavatories. It's not that long a walk!

GATOR BOWL
ASSOCIATION
WANTS YOU

The Gator Bowl Association has written the office of university relations and development in search of new members. Anyone interested in the Association should contact URD for details and a membership application.
