BOARD OF REGENTS The University of North Florida Academic Plan and MEETS MONDAY Career Advisement program will be presented to the members of the Florida Board of Regents Monday,
May 1, when they meet at Florida Junior College south campus.

Following the meeting, the Board will receive a grand tour of the UNF campus and building construction. For the members who attended the groundbreaking ceremony in September, it will be quite a surprising tour. Where once only love bugs flew, now stand six buildings!!

SPEAKING OF The monthly staff tour of the construction site CAMPUS TOURS... will leave at 3 p.m. today. The bus will load outside the side entrance. All those interested in joining the tour should contact Kathy Church in physical facilities to be signed up.

DR. RUSSELL'S Dr. Samuel Russell, chairman of the department
TRIP TO of vocational-technical education, will leaving for AFRICA ON Nairobi May 9 on a consulting tour originally planned for February.

He will spend three to five weeks as a consultant in vocational and technical education with the Florida A & M University project in Kenya. He will make a comprehensive study of conditions and needs and will write a proposal dealing with that part of the project involving vocational and technical education. Other phases of the project will include agriculture, health, economics and road engineering.

DR. HARMON Dr. Gary L. Harmon, chairman of the department of SPELLING languages and literature, will act as pronouncer
JUDGE for the Regional Spelling Bee competition, May 6.
The contest will determine who goes to Washington, D.C. for the national finals. He will recognize several of the participants from a previous encounter, April 13, when he was a judge for the Duval County Spelling Bee.

From languages to literature, Dr. Harmon traveled to Toledo, Ohio April 5-8 to give a paper at the National Popular Culture Association meeting. The paper was titled, "The Popular Muse in the 'High-Art' English Curriculum." It was an argument for the inclusion of all the literature of a culture as a focus for study rather than just the elegant part of the literary culture.

DR. MONGAR TO SERVE ON PANEL
COMMITTEE

The political science expertise of Dr. Tom Mongar, chairman of the department of political science, has been called upon recently on two separate occasions.

Dr. Mongar will sit on a panel on "Recruiting Practices in Contemporary American Political Science," at the Midwest Political Science Association annual meeting in Chicago, April 26-29.

He has also been nominated to serve on a steering committee responsible for the creation of a Florida Political Science Association, headed by Dr. Manning J. Dauer.

DR. YESSIN
JUDGES MISS
CFCC

Miss Melody Jenkins, named Miss Central Florida Community College last Saturday night, will be attending the University of North Florida as a piano major studying with Dr. Gerson Yessin, chairman of the department of fine arts.

Dr. Yessin, one of the five judges for the Miss CFCC contest, insists that his judging was strictly impartial. Miss Jenkins is the first black student ever to be named Miss Florida Community College.

DR. KANNWISCHER
EVALUATES
KENTUCKY SCHOOL

Nell Kannwischer is still overwhelmed by the display of Kentucky hospitality shown the Southern Association's visiting team on which she served at the Transylvania University campus, April 24-26. In a pilot effort to combine the visits of several evaluation agencies, the State of Kentucky Department of Education conducted their on-campus assessment of the teacher education program simultaneously. Nell had the privilege of acting as liaison for the Southern Association with the Kentucky team and participating in both groups' activities.

ADMITTANCE
INFORMATION

Betty Crippen, University registrar and Rufus Jefferson, director of financial aid, will speak Monday morning to the staff of the Emergency School Assistance Program about admission and financial aid procedures at the UNF.

The ESAP is a federal organization which aids students in applying to colleges and universities and in finding available financial aid for them.

SPRING FORWARD
THIS WEEKEND

The Daylight Savings formula "spring forward and fall back" should remind you to set your clocks forward one hour Saturday night and lose an hour of sleep Sunday morning. We wouldn't want you to come in an hour early for work Monday!
