INQUIRIES TO UNF SOAR

The load of incoming calls, letters, office visitors, and various return cards has swollen with the onset of spring and the time when students begin to make choices about college, according to Betty Crippen, registrar.

During April applications passed the mark of 1,252 and other inquiries continued to hover near 2,000 for the past two months.

Inquiry traffic in the Registrar's office over the past months:

Nov.	Dec.	Jan.	Feb.	March	April

PERSONNEL PROMOTIONS PLENTIFUL

Three UNF student assistants were promoted this week. Barry Chambers rose to clerk III in student services, Jim Vowell became storekeeper II in the purchasing department, and Mrs. Jessie Lockett moved from student assistant to cashier II in finance and accounting.

NEW FACES

Promotions weren't all that kept the personnel department busy this week. Seven new faces will be seen around the UNF "campus" from now on, bringing the total UNF staff to 178 members as of May 2!

Keeping the campus safe and sound, will be the chief duty of JOHN F. PLUMB, the UNF's new security director. Mr. Plumb earned a degree in police science and administration from Michigan State University and was previously security officer of the Barnett Bank of St. Augustine.

The security officer working with Mr. Plumb will be ROBERT W. CORISTIN. Mr. Coristin was with the City of Jacksonville Sheriff's Department before joining the UNF.

Academic Affairs has a new face this week, that of MARY MARSHA IVEY, clerk-typist III. Marsha came to the UNF from the Gulf Life Insurance Company where she was a secretary.

The new clerk-typist II in the College of Arts and Sciences is MRS. JEAN BAKER, who attended Florida Junior College. Mrs. Baker was previously with Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc.

MRS. LINDA NAPP is the new keypunch operator in information systems. She got her experience with Financial Computer Service before joining the UNF.

Two Florida Junior College students are now student assistants at the UNF. JAMES M. JORDAN is assisting in information systems. He has worked with Prudential as an advanced operator.

GENCIE RUCKER is helping the personnel department as student assistant. She was with Florida Junior College's purchasing department as clerk and student assistant for over four years.

PURCHASING PROCEDURES

When requesting Xerox copies, please use form #305 (small form). All other duplicating should be requested on form #306.

All orders for office supplies should now be placed with Mike von Dolteren.

LUNCHEON FOR THE UNF WOMEN

Mrs. George Corrick is hostess to the UNF Women's Club meeting this month in her home at 2960 Beauclerc Road, on Thursday, May 11, at 11:00 a.m.

It will be a covered dish luncheon.

WEDDING BELLS
FOR BARRY

Barry Chambers, clerk III in student services, will be heading down the proverbial aisle to the threshold of marital bliss next Saturday, May 13, at 1:00 p.m. at Spring Glen Methodist Church, 6007 Beach Boulevard. A general invitation to the whole UNF is posted on the bulletin board. Joan Mitchem, a tiny redhead, is Barry's intended. They will be going to the mountains for their honeymoon. Congratulations, Barry!

ROOT FOR WOOTEN AT SOMEPLACE ELSE

Somebody has a good eye! Kay Wooten, UNF's switchboard operator, was spotted by the managers of the Naked Pear boutique, located near our annex, and was asked to model some of their far-out clothes.

The Naked Pear will be one of several clothing stores furnishing fashions for a showing at Someplace Else, sponsored by WIVY radio, Wednesday, May 10. Try to make one of the two showings, at 5:30 or at 9:30 p.m. and make our Kay smile. There is no charge, and the Bill Davis Trio will be entertaining throughout.
