Career Day 2007

Transportation & Logistics Society

*Friday
February, 23, 2006*

TLS Mission

---

We do hereby associate ourselves together for the formation of The Transportation & Logistics Society for the purpose of promoting, fostering and encouraging student interest in the field of transportation & logistics, and to accomplish this purpose by creating a relationship network for transportation & logistics majors at The University of North Florida, promoting the growth of the program at The University, enhancing membership skills through shared professional experiences, fostering personal & professional growth among members, and by serving The University, The Coggin College of Business the logistics community of Jacksonville, and where possible, the nation.

Did you know?

UNF's Transportation and Logistics program is ranked 13th in the nation surpassing Stanford (No. 19), Auburn (No. 14) and Wisconsin-Madison (No. 17) programs. Our graduates qualify for a professional certification from the American Society of Transportation and Logistics (AST&L). The Transportation and Logistics Society is supported by UNF faculty leaders who are internationally recognized in their areas of expertise.

About the Event

- ◆ Our goals of Career Day are to provide students who are interested in logistics careers and potential employers, with an opportunity to get to know each other and to provide the participating organizations with an enhanced opportunity to learn about UNF's Transportation and Logistics Major, our Faculty, and other services of the Coggin College of Business and the University of North Florida.
- ◆ The entire day is set aside for companies to hold one-on-one interviews with undergraduate and graduate students in Logistics and to learn more about how our students can meet their internship and career position needs.
- ◆ The event includes approximately 50 students and 16 companies.
- ◆ Interviews take place in 20-30 min intervals.
- ◆ Students have the opportunity to participate in as many as 6-8 closed door interviews.
- ◆ Participating companies are able to interview as many as 13 students.
