My dear Mrs. Fleming,

I had planned to carry flowers to Gov. Fleming, but since God has taken him home I want to leave them for you, his loved one, and tell you how much my heart goes out to you in these lonely hours. However much we may try to submit, there partings are very sad, the missing and the longing for that dear face will come to us as long as life lasts.

May God grant you and yours peace.

Fannie H. W. Drew.

December the twenty-fourth.
