DEAN PARRISH TO ADDRESS CONFERENCE

Dean James M. Parrish of the College of Business Administration will attend a conference entitled, "Managing the Business School of the 70's", July 20-21 at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond.

Dr. Parrish will address the group on "The Role of the Department Chairman as Viewed by the Dean."

HONORS BESTOWED ON ASSISTANT DEAN

Dr. Jack T. Humphries, new assistant dean of faculties, was elected chairman of the Physics Division of the American Society for Engineering Education at its annual meeting at Texas Technical University last month.

The national organization of engineering educators has a membership of several thousands, 800 of which are affiliated with the physics branch.

Dr. Humphries was also recently honored by being named in the 1972 editions of Outstanding Educators of America and the American Men of Science. Congratulations, Dr. Humphries!

ON THE AIR

President Carpenter and Dr. George W. Corrick, dean of university relations and development, will be interviewed on WMBR Radio—1460 AM—this evening at 6:30 p.m. Be sure to tune in and hear them speak out on the UNF and the UNF Foundation's Volunteer Alumni program.

The UNF is covering a lot of air waves. WMBR will air a weekly program called UNF Countdown Sunday evenings at 10:45. The programs consist of taped interviews with various UNF staff discussing different aspects of the UNF prior to the opening. This week's program will include an interview with Dr. Warren Rose, chairman of the department of transportation and logistics, and Jack Winstead, director of purchasing.

OUR FAME SPREADS... Thanks to Dr. Carroll Simms, chairman of the department of sociology, the University was the subject of a write-up in the April issue of the Southern Sociologist, the official publication of the Southern Sociological Society. The article gave general background about the University and described the sociology programs to be offered.

Dr. Simms was recently appointed to the editorial board of the new journal, Teaching Sociology, edited by Murray A. Straus, department of sociology and anthropology, Social Sciences Center, University of New Hampshire.

UNF GUN CLUB
RECRUITS

Many of the new staff members may be unaware of the existence of the University of North Florida Gun Club. The membership is comprised of staff members of the University. While neither the Club nor the University currently have facilities, these are in the planning stage. In the meantime, participation in the Club enables members to obtain sporting goods (hunting and fishing equipment) at wholesale prices. For information and membership applications contact Mrs. B. J. Brown in the President's Office.

MORBID MEMO FROM PERSONNEL

Have you..

Made a will?

Made sure that the person designated to receive your retirement benefits, in case of death, is current?

Made sure that your insurance beneficiary is current?

Listed your current marital status, address, home telephone, and persons to be notified in case of emergency with the personnel office?

The above are some of the items that each employee should keep current. Please be sure that you report changes to personnel promptly.

NEW FACES

The influx of new faces has slacked off a bit...only five more names to add to the roster this week.

DR. JACK T. HUMPHRIES, assistant dean of faculties, B.S. (University of Kentucky), M.S. (Air Force Institute of Technology), Ph.D. (University of Florida), joins us from the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, where he is a professor of physics. He is with us for only the month of July, after which he will return to the Academy to teach the fall quarter. He will then join the UNF permanently in January.

Physical facilities gained two new employees this week. CAROL ANN REGAS, clerk typist II, has earned her A.A. degree from Florida Junior College. She was with Standard Sales as a sales clerk before joining the UNF.

MICHAEL J. WELSH, groundskeeper I, served in the U.S. Air Force for three years.

MRS. JOAN PELOUS, clerk typist II in the library, attended Florida Junior College, where she earned her A.A. degree and also worked for the past year.

MRS. GAYLE REILLY, student assistant in the registrar's office, also received her A.A. degree from F.J.C., and attended the University of Florida. She has been working as receptionist at the Ponte Vedra Country Club since May.
