COUNSELING KICKS
OFF AUG. 1

After a month of training, the UNF faculty counselors are now ready to handle the hundreds of student counseling appointments beginning

Tuesday.

Appointments are being taken through the Student Affairs office. Each student is assigned a counselor from the thirteen on staff according to his major area of study. The counseling will be done in all available conference space from August 1 through Sept. 8. Students are advised to try to keep assigned appointment times, as changing appointments may delay registration.

DR. CORRICK TO TEACH AT SUMMER
ACADEMY

Dr. George Corrick, dean of university relations and development, will serve on the faculty of the 1972 American College Public Relations Association's Summer Academy at the University of Maryland Aug. 6-11.

The Academy offers lectures and courses in college and university management, public relations and development for newcomers to the fields.

Dr. Corrick will lecture and lead discussion groups in the areas of planning of advancement programs, working with lay boards, and communication with influential publics.

A DOLLAR HERE,
A DOLLAR THERE ... The Foundation office reports gifts last week totaled nearly $2,700. The gifts, $1,000 from a local foundation; $1,000 from a local firm; $500 from a professional association; and several smaller gifts, pushed the Foundation total over the $25,000 mark.

Several direct mail solicitations for Volunteer Alumni are scheduled for the coming weeks. Any staff members interested in helping with the solicitation will be welcomed.

TWO NEW PH.D.'S
ON STAFF

The College of Arts and Sciences received word last week that two of its faculty members have successfully completed the requirements for the doctorate.

Dr. Minor H. Chamblin, assistant professor of psychology, will receive his Doctor of Philosophy degree on August 9 from the University of Kentucky.

Dr. William R. Slaughter, assistant professor of English, will be awarded his Ph.D. from Purdue University sometime in August.

Congratulations to both!!

UNF WEEKLY AIRTIME UNF Countdown, WMBR's weekly 15 minute radio program at 10:45 Sunday evening, will feature interviews with Ben Campbell, director of admissions; Dr. Jack Netcher, chairman of the department of health and physical education; and Barry Chambers of Student Affairs. WMBR is 1460 on the dial.

ON THE SPEAKING Tuesday and Wednesday, August 1 and 2, President
CIRCUIT Carpenter will participate in a panel discussion at the Association of College and University Housing Officers conference in Hollywood, Florida.

The topic of the panel will be "Why or Why Not Residence Halls from a President's Point of View."

Dr. George W. Corrick, dean of university relations and development, addressed the Northside Rotary Club this noon at the Golfair Holiday Inn.

LOW COST HOUSING Students entering the UNF this fall are in need
NEEDED of low cost housing--under $100 per month. Rooms, apartments, and houses are badly needed. If anyone has information about such available housing, please contact Dr. William Baggett, dean of students, or Barry Chambers in Student Affairs.

NEW FACES Physical facilities added eight new employees to its staff this week:

JOHN E. DIEDRICH, JR., plumber, was previously with the Eagerton Plumbing Co.

JOHN A. DAMIAN, new refrigeration mechanic, had been a pipefitter with the Jacksonville Shipyards since 1969.

STEVEN A. NORTON is the new groundskeeper I. He was formerly with Prudential Insurance Co. as a landscape laborer.

Physical facilities' auto mechanic, RAYMOND F. KERN, JR., has been with the Mobile Lubrication Service Inc. for the past year.

New operating engineer, WILSON L. GRIFFIN, just finished twelve years of service in the U.S. Navy.

JOSEPH N. DIMAURO, carpenter, joined the UNF from Baptist Hospital, where he was operator, engineer and plumber since 1969. He attended Jones Business College.

Two new campus security officers have been added. DEBORAH J. MARTIN earned her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Florida State University, where she also earned the equivalent number of hours for a degree in criminology.

A Jones College graduate with an A.S. degree, DENNIS YORIO, security officer, came to the UNF from the Archie Davis Construction Co.

BARBARA C. CLAPP, secretary II in the College of Arts and Sciences, joined the UNF from working with the Jacksonville Beaches electric utilities. She received her bachelor's degree from Florida State University where she also was employed last year.

NEW P.O. POLICY Beginning now, no purchase order numbers will be given out over the telephone. A requisition must be submitted to purchasing before a number will be given.
