INAUGURATION DAY
JANUARY 20, 2009

SmartTrip

44TH PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

- Use this card to pay for transit fares or parking fees wherever you see the SmarTrip® logo. Each customer must have a card and it must be produced on demand by an authorized transit employee or police.
- This card is the only means of payment at most Metro-operated parking facilities. Parking gates will not open without the full parking fee on the card.
- Valid registration of your card with the SmarTrip® Regional Customer Service Center is required for balance protection when the card is reported lost or stolen. Register online at MetroOpensDoors.com or get a registration form in any station or at a transit store.
- For information about SmarTrip® or to report a problem with your card, please call 1-888-SMARTRIP (1-888-762-7874) (TTY-703-620-8782) or e-mail smartrip@wmata.com.
- SmarTrip® contains sensitive electronics. Do not bend, perforate or expose to extreme temperatures.
- Value added through SmartBenefits®, Metrochek or other valid transit benefit programs may only be used by qualified employees who receive the benefit from their employer or a WMATA agent. Use by any other person invalidates the value added, is illegal and subjects the person to arrest and/or prosecution.
- If found, please return to: WMATA, 600 Fifth Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20001
- The , SmarTrip® and SmartBenefits® logos are registered trade/service marks of WMATA.
