A dissapointing concert at Jack Kleinsinger's Highlights in Jazz concert April 27. The Brecker Brothers just didn't seem to care; Billy Hart was uninspired, John Tropea faked it and even Wayne Dockery seemed to lack cogent statements. Through it all, Ray Barretto did his usual best, Hal Galper tried to say things and guest David Samuels was a pleasant surprise on vibes. Oh well, maybe next time...that'll be June 15 when the likes of Joe Newman and Helen Humes will be on hand to explore the blues.
