ENVIRONMENTAL A $6,000 environmental education grant
PROJECT GRANT proposal jointly submitted by the AWARDED UNF University of North Florida and the Duval Public School System has been approved and awarded.

The project will develop and field-test basic ecological and environmental values, such as the interdependence of man and other living things, to those living in large urban areas. A five-week workshop is planned.

Dr. Bill Fryar, Duval County Environmental Supervisor and Dr. Jim Bassett, assistant professor of education, will co-direct the project. Dr. Bassett sees the project as a pilot project for the state, demonstrating the cooperation of a state university and the public school system.

CORRICK Dr. George W. Corrick, dean of University
PRESIDENT Relations and Development, was elected
OF CPC president of the Community Planning
Council at the CPC's annual meeting Monday (Nov. 27).
The Council is a coordinating agency for community planning in human services.

ETS Dr. John Centra, research psychologist
CONSULTANT and Educational Testing Service
MEETS WITH consultant, visited campus Friday (Dec. 1)
UNFERS for a full day of consulting with UNF deans and chairmen.

Dr. Centra discussed the ETS student evaluation instrument and the UNF's participation with ETS in a research project for developing a faculty evaluation instrument. Six thousand copies of the ETS student evaluation form should arrive Monday or Tuesday (Dec. 4 or 5) and will be made available through Dr. Lassiter's office, building one/2568.

UNF GIVING TRADITION
THIS MONTH

It is a UNF tradition to contribute food, clothing and toys to a needy family at Christmas. Starting Monday (Dec. 4) boxes will be located at various places around the campus for your Christmas donations. There will also be a can located in the department of vocational technical education, building one/2239 for those who would rather donate money.

If enough is collected, the city's Division of Family Services may be able to give us two or three families to help this Christmas. If you have any questions or would like to help in the project, please contact Nancy Hill, building one/2239, ext. 2980, or B. J. Brown, building one/2525, ext. 2500.

ENVIRONMENTAL
ORGANIZED

Students and staff interested in joining the newly organized "Environmental Concern Organization" should contact Dr. Bob Loftin, building one/2419, ext. 2880, or Dr. Jim Bassett, building one/2363, ext. 2767.

MESSIAH MESSAGE

Don't forget that the UNF chorus conducted by Jack Funkhouser, with William Brown as solo tenor and Arthur Bloomer on the UNF pipe organ, will perform with the Jacksonville Symphony in Handel's "Messiah" at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, (Dec. 5). This is your last chance to purchase tickets for the concert at $3 in the fine arts office.

TWO ATTEND
FLORIDA
PHILOSOPHY
MEETING

Dr. Steven De Lue, assistant professor of political science, and Dr. Robert Loftin, associate professor of philosophy, attended the 18th annual meeting of the Florida Philosophical Association at Rollins College, Winter Park, last month. Dr. De Lue read a paper entitled "The Importance of Herbert Marcuse's Thought for Contemporary Politics" and Dr. Loftin read a paper entitled "Two Problems in Kant's Ethics". Dr. Loftin also participated in a panel on the teaching of philosophy. He was elected secretary-treasurer of the association for a three year term, 1973-75.
