"WITH THE COLORS"

3/Tuesday/18

Dearest Friend:-

just a line or more.

Have been busy indeed Monday & Today. Have never sit down except at meals since getting up or excepting to study. Can't take time to tell you what all I do each day.

Everyone O. K. myself included. Saw L. G. a few minutes this eve.

Rec'd a letter from U. this day.

Bryant will no doubt leave in a day or so, no doubt for overseas. (mum is the word) I think they all (the motor companies) go to Detroit, are given a truck which they drive overland to New York. Have not seen Vergil for a week or ten days.

Almost everyone in the Room is studying. We have exam. Friday and some stiff it will be I presume. Of all strenuous study, I am now bump-ing into such as I never was accustomed to before.

Hope that Luther and you all had a fine time. Well, I don't would love to write you more and often but time is precious as gold. Tho' you are just as precious as any gold never the less. Obedience is the first and last duty of a soldier, so I must get my lesson as commanded.

Wishing you happiness beyond measure and with Love to you and all. I will close until I have time for other lines.

Yours ever,
Wus
