

WOMAN'S CLUB
OF JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. Jennings regrets exceedingly that the rush of the day's duties prevents her from attending the exhibition at Bethel Church.

She hopes to have the pleasure of seeing this exhibit at some other time.

The bearer will bring any communication that it may be desired to send to the Woman's Club.

Jacksonville, Fla.
May 28th, 1917.

Plus Accept this little token of ^{remembrance} of our appreciation of your most loyal cooperation and friendship in our club work. Yours truly,

City Federation of W. C.
E. M. M. White P. A.
Secy. S. G. Baker

This was made by the Chairman of our Art Dep. Mrs. Amy D. C.
Age 75.

Mrs. F. Jennings
Pres. W. Clubs.

I have known Mrs. Frances E. Preston for thirty years, and as a public speaker among her own people, she leads the advance.

She is skilled in reciting the words of others, and when called upon to address the public upon the vital topics of the day, she never lacks fitting words of her own, but speaks without fear, and from the heart.

She has a fine presence and a voice freighted with rich experiences. She moves an audience from the heights of a supreme self-command.

I am glad to write these richly deserved words for one so worthy.

EDNA CHAFFEE NOBLE.

My supreme ambition is to reach that height of perfection Mrs. Preston has attained.

RICHARD B. HARRISON.

TEMPERANCE PROGRAM

1. Bible Reading
2. Possum Trot..... Paul L. Dunbar
3. Possom Paul L. Dunbar
4. Effect of Possum Paul L. Dunbar
Music
5. God's Errands Never Fail..... E. E. Page
6. Pictures from Life..... J. J. Wooley
7. A Plea for the Children..... Grace Green
Music: Down in the Licensed Saloon.....
8. Fretful Tilda Strong.....
9. How Matilda Sings..... P. L. Dunbar
10. House Top Saint

The work of the W. C. T. U. is brought out in the talks following the temperance recitations and songs.

Selections from Shakespeare.

RECITAL

"DE VALLEY AND DE SHADDER"

Arranged by Edna Chaffee Noble,
From the Story by H. S. Edwards.

Scene: Black Angle Swamp.

Persons: The Dusky Children of the Soil.

1.
 - (a) Pretty Little Lou.
 - (b) The Gambler's Quarrel.
 - (c) The Tragedy.Music.
2.
 - (a) Uncle Siah Reads from de Bible.
 - (b) Mandy Learns de Way.
3.

Mandy goes to find Mars Bob.

Music.
4.
 - (a) The Trial.
 - (b) Mars Bob Defends Ben.

This program has been given in Chicago and other large cities with great success and is adjudged by critics to be one of the best to be obtained. Mrs. Preston needs no introduction to W. C. T. U. workers, as she has appeared on State and National Programs for the past 20 years. Her success in drilling for Medal Contests is ample guarantee of her ability as an Elocutionist.

Come and enjoy an evening of unique entertainment and amusement.
Admission.

10 & 15¢

Mrs. Horden
47
Rose Chism