Jesus as a man of Prayer

It was Jesus who asked his Disciples to watch with him. One hour when the end of his journey was drawing to a close here on this Earth, it is said that great drops of sweat like blood ran down and in agony he prayed.

Now then if Jesus prayed like that, how ought we to pray, he has told us to pray without ceasing. Prayer is the key that unlocks the door of Heaven.
his Father for those who were crucifying him, he said Father forgive them, they know not what they do. We too can learn a great lesson from that. As Jesus was the great example for us as Christians to go by, we too should pray for those who treat us unkindly. A good Mohammedan prays four times a day, but a good Christian likes to commune with her God at any and all times day or night. Jesus was a Man of Prayer. He teaches us both by precepts and example the value of prayer.
Jesus taught us the Lord's Prayer. Let us pray it together.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven; give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our Trespasses as we forgive those who Trespass against us. Deliver us from evil, for thine is the Kin-gom, the power and glory are thine for ever, A. Men.

That is the prayer He left for us all to pray, and we must take time to pray for when thou prayest,
The vision's cleared
The voice is toned the will's
Subdued, the dear are to thee
More endeared.

And the souls failing Strength's renewed.
In prayer the purest
Words are spoken
The mind receives heaven's Holy light.

The heart is given, the Spirit's token, the hands
Are charged with wisdom's

Therefore take time to Pray
