MUSIC

Highlights in Jazz: This evening of jazz guitar ought to avoid the proliferation of empty notes, since Bucky and John Pizzarelli (who have a lovely new record on Stash) have made guitar duets a science, and Tiny Grimes and Barney Kessel have their own ways of doing things. March 21 at 8, Loeb Student Center, 566 LaGuardia Place, 598-2027. (Giddins)

'AN EVENING OF JAZZ GUITAR'
NYU LOEB STUDENT CENTER/MAR. 21
Bucky and son John Pizzarelli are stalwarts in and around the city (Bucky brunches every Sunday at the St. Regis Hotel). Barney Kessel lives in Oklahoma City, and Tiny Grimes (pictured) is in town recuperating from a recent illness. Each brandishes a mean pick, and though Tiny's got only four strings to work with, against each of the others' six, he makes the most of them. Generational differences notwithstanding, this "Evening of Jazz Guitar" will probably cover familiar territory that all—including the audience—love to travel. JL.
