Summer Employees Number 22!!

Florida Blue Cross is very fortunate to have a good staff of summer employees this year.

One could almost say the 22 employed this summer are "hand-picked." The young people employed are either in college or will enter school for the first time this fall.

Entering college freshmen for the fall are Meta Bond, Records, Sweet Briar College; Joan Bouware, Records, Florida State; Alice Farrer, Cashiers, University of Florida; Evans Harrell, IBM, Sewannee University; Jim Hilligass, IBM, Catholic University; Tim Irwin, IBM, Tulane University; and George Pope, Print Shop, Emory University.

There are nine girls around the BC-BS office that get together every Wednesday night and have a "bowling" BALL!

For about a two year period, many years ago, BC had a girls' bowling team. It was not sponsored by Blue Cross. Now, that two teams have been organized recently, BC sponsors the teams by paying the entrance fees and the expense of uniforms.

The teams' names are the "Blue Cross Jacks" and the "Blue Cross Jills".

The "Jacks" are captained by Dot Rivers, Transcribing, while the "Jills" have Mickey Williams, Cashiers, as their captain. On the "Jacks" team are June Jones, Claims; Elizabeth Lees, Claims; and Edna Mathis, Services. Included in the "Jills" are Mary Olah, Subscribers Service; Earline Hieler, Claims; and Pat Harger, Claims.

Both teams have the same alternate, Juanita Dougherty from the Representatives office. Juanita's average is 136, which is the highest of the nine girls.

Six teams make up the league the girls compete in each Wednesday at the Bowl-O-Matic in the Cedar Hills Shopping Center. Bowling time is from 7 to 9.

Sixth place is held by the "Jacks" with a record of 10½ wins and 13½ losses. High scorer on the team in Dot Rivers with a 123 average also.

A special honor for BC is that Mary Olah was recently elected vice president of the league.

The teams had their first games June 3, and will continue to bowl this season until September.
Even in an island paradise people get sick and need help with their medical bills... and therein is the story of Hawaii Medical Service Association, the Blue Shield plan in our 50th State.

HMSA celebrated its 20th anniversary last year, making it one of the oldest in the country. It was begun as a "socio-economic experiment" by school teachers and social workers. In early days, Hawaiian doctors accepted only two-thirds of their normal fees as complete payment, in order to help the new company along. The Association also has the distinction of being the pioneer in offering home and office visit benefits for medical treatments. The idea of paying for home visits is one that Alabama is now investigating.

HMSA started with only three employees, and now has 94. The main office is in Honolulu, with branches in Hilo, Wailuku, and Lihue. The Board of Directors is elected by subscribers. There are 23 directors, representing business, labor, religion, education, hospitals, and doctors.

William Kaina, an employee of HMSA, writes: "Under State-hood, HMSA should experience an accelerated growth parallel to the expected growth of our entire operations and planning to this end. "We appreciate very much the interest you have in us, and hope that such interest will continue. Any thing we can do for any of your staff will certainly be undertaken with pleasure. Thank you, and Aloha."

Blue Cross Is Granted Rate Hikes

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 4 (AP) - Florida's largest hospitalization insurer, Blue Cross, today was granted rate increase which will cost the average policy holder 60 cents more a month.

State Insurance Commissioner J. Edwin Larson announced he had granted rate increase which will cost the average policy holder 60 cents more a month.

He granted Blue Cross an overall increase of 12.57 per cent instead of the 20.7 per cent increase asked by the company.

Larson said evidence developed by a public hearing showed that Blue Cross needed the increased rates to meet benefits it must pay on contracts running through March, 1961.

He said Blue Cross' costs per claim had risen $28.20 during the past two years and four more persons per 1,000 policy holders were filing claims than two years ago.

The new rates will become effective on group policies renewed after Oct. 1 and on non-group policies renewed after Jan. 1.

Larson said there will be no increase in the rates for Blue Shield surgical contracts, generally written in combination with Blue Cross coverage.

This means, Larson said, that the holder of a $10 a day, 31 days family Blue Cross-Blue Shield contract will pay $8.95 a month under the new rate schedule. The present rate is $8.35 a month.

As reported to you last month, Mr. Schroder went before the Insurance Department of the State July 17, in a public hearing. The press, in attendance at the meeting, were given news releases covering very basically the facts behind the need for higher rates as outlined by Mr. Schroder in his presentation.

Copies of Mr. Schroder's presentation are available in the Personnel Department, should you like to read the source material from which newspapers around the state obtained their facts.
Some 525 employees and guests crowded into the Pistol Club Saturday, July 25, for the Annual Employees' Barbecue.

The festivities began in the afternoon with volleyball, horseshoes, cork ball, and other activities. Dinner was served at 6:30, which included fried chicken, barbecued ribs, potato salad, cole slaw, baked beans, and other usual foods served at a picnic.

The event is sponsored by the Employees' Club. According to George Patrinely, club president, Blue Cross-Blue Shield helped with the expenses by paying 63% of the total bill.
The latest addition to John L. Bentley's portrait collection is that of Mr. Schroeder. John L. spent about 16 hours on this painting. Done in oil paints, John L. did the painting solely from a snapshot that appeared in the January, 1959, issue of News of the Blues.

Shirley Spencer and her husband, Don, are expecting their first baby around Christmas time. What a wonderful Christmas present! Shirley says, "Like most men, Don wants a boy, and I'd rather it be a girl."

SURGICAL CLAIMS

For the first time in 11 years Sara Cox and her husband Jack moved into a new apartment...... Sara exclaims, "It was a mess trying to get everything together!" This apartment is larger and is located at 2969 Henschel Street......

If you see a bright streak of light going by, it is Marcia Jordan, summer employee, flashing her diamond! Marcia will be married to Eugene Strickland......

Fay Williams enjoyed a week of her vacation time just staying home. She did make a quick trip to Lake City to visit the Stephen Foster Memorial. She says her second week will be a little more exciting..... her sister from Kansas City will be visiting her...... More and more people seem to be going to Nassau for their vacations! Dottie and Jim Lytle took their children to Nassau for a week......

You'll have to have Dottie tell you about some of the wonderful things they saw and did!

It's every man (and woman) for himself from now on when it comes to keeping tabs on how many hours you work a week at BC-BS, since the old system of time clocks has been done away with!

As of July 20, each employee has been responsible for his own time card, and to some it has proven confusing, as our model, Marilyn Davis, from Telephone Information demonstrates.

At the right Marilyn uses the age-old method of counting on her fingers to get the correct total of hours. Although Marilyn knows eight hours a day, five days a week, equals 40 hours or one working week, she just can't seem to get her figures to balance, as we see below!
PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

MAL STUART

Weekends mean grass cutting for Mal, but he enjoys doing this and other chores in their yard.

A native of London, England, a keen sense of humor, and a fellow interested in many different things go together to describe our Personality of the Month, Mal Stuart, Branch Manager in Tampa.

Although he was born in a suburb of London known as Brixton, Mal obtained his American Citizenship in Pittsburgh in 1939. He says, "I regret to say I have lost all traces of the English accent, but I do like to hear the cultured speech like that of Churchill."

Mal has been with BC-BS 10 years. He was first a representative in Polk County for four years. He has been at the Tampa Office as Manager since 1953.

Like any family man, Mal is quite proud of his. His family includes his wife, Ethel, a 19 year old son, Robert, and a pet Parakeet bird named Boo Boo (named after the little bear in Huckleberry Hound's Yogi Bear cartoon).

His son, Robert, attended Florida State last year. While there, he was very honored to be the warm-up player for the famed tennis player, Pancho Gonzales, who was participating in a tennis exhibition at FSU. Mal added, "He is the proud possessor of a tennis ball autographed by all the players in the match." While at FSU, Robert was a major in Pre-Seminary Education. He will enter Sewanee, University of the South, this fall to complete his divinity studies. This summer, Robert is employed at the Episcopal Church Camp in Avon Park. In his (Continued on next page) usual jolly manner, Mal teasingly said, "He is head kitchen boy, or as we tease him...he is chief cook and bottle washer." Most of Mal’s leisure activities include his family. The three of them enjoy very much gathering around the piano and singing a few songs together. Another family pastime is to record "readings" on their tape recorder. Weather permitting, every weekend the three enjoy being outside as much as possible. They usually end the weekend by having a picnic in their back yard, which is located on Lake Dormey.

One of Mal’s personal hobbies is gardening. He enjoys, on the weekends, to get outside and cut the grass, and just generally work in the yard.

An outstanding thing that Mal just completed recently was that of attending the Florida Journalism Institute at the University of Florida, as a guest speaker. In addition to working with the young people at the Institute, Mal does a lot for the young people in his own community. Mal enjoys assisting local high school seniors by conducting yearly classes in suggested methods of job procurement.

As for Ethel, many of her leisure hours are spent gardening too. She is also an amateur orchid fancier. When not outside, inside hobbies include knitting, crocheting, and reading.

One will have to agree that Mal Stuart is a man that is a friend to all. Not only does he take pride in doing things for his own family, but willingly helps others, too.

Did't Win The Canoe,
But Did Get $10.34
With The 6,000 Coupons

More than likely between the end of May and July 6, more BC-BS employees ate potato chips than at any other time, and Mabel Fleming from the Billing Department is really grateful!

Mabel Fleming

Mabel explained that her fellow employees would buy Lay's Potato Chips on breaks and at lunch and give her the coupons that were inside. She said that BC personnel donated about 6,000 coupons that went toward winning a canoe for her Boy Scout Troop. Lay's was giving away 10 canoes to Troops that could collect the largest number of coupons by July 6. Well, Mabel's Troop didn't win the canoe, but they did get $10.34. They missed winning the canoe by about 1,800 coupons.

Mabel is President of the Mothers' Auxiliary, Troop 11, Wesconnett. She has two boys, Lee 14, and Billy, 12. Billy is a Star Boy Scout in Troop 11. Mabel's husband, Ruble, is the assistant Scout Master of the Troop, so Scouting is a family affair with the Flemings!
