Dear Mrs. Walker:

Yours to hand. I am sending you a check for $105⁰⁰. I am so sorry I can't send you the whole amount this time. I am having some very heavy bills coming upon me at this time. I have many persons who owe me for real estate; but I can't not collect it just now. I want to thank you for your patience and kindness to me by writing as you are. Just as soon as I can I will remit the balance.

You said you were coming over soon. He will be glad to see you at any time. Eddie will come when she can get a chance. Be good, I am as ever yours,
W. H. Peck
