

What's Discussed:

- 1st general discussion of course
2. presentation of original speeches lecture on historical origins 3. Can't lecture on early history Begin w/ Aristotle's history
4. The Rhetoric of Aristotle

Text on The Rhetoric

judge is related to word critic.

pg XXI

The focus emphasis of the R is on the nature of the person to be persuaded

The Rhetoric is really a psychology book

The judge is the person who <sup>forensic</sup> decides the case or the person who the <sup>delineating</sup> speaker tries to persuade to a course of action or decisions <sup>formed</sup> in an epideictic the person who has the power of decision (peace or blood)

Not generally the judge is or person

judge - good sense, sound education complete human sympathy