The common theme is common sense.

For the last decade, Dick Gephardt has proven to be one of the most effective leaders in the Congress of the United States.

So effective, his congressional peers honored him with election to the prestigious Chairmanship of the House Democratic Caucus. He is the youngest Member to achieve this distinction and the only one elected unanimously in the history of the Congress.

Dick Gephardt is that rare combination of a progressive visionary and an effective pragmatist, with a distinguished record of transforming good ideas into good policy.

Dick Gephardt, a St. Louis native, is a graduate of Northwestern University and the University of Michigan Law School. He served six years in the Missouri National Guard as a captain and legal officer.

He served two terms as a St. Louis alderman before being elected to Congress in 1976. He has won every re-election since with more than 66% of the vote.

Dick Gephardt is 46 years old. He and his wife, Jane Byrnes, have been married for 20 years and have three children: Matthew, 16; Christine, 14; and Katherine, 9.

Gephardt recently victorious in Iowa and South Dakota and a strong second place finish in New Hampshire, represents the Democrats BEST HOPE to re-capture the White House in 88!
