The Jacksonville Women's Network

Invites you to spend an evening with

Gloria Steinem

Thursday, February 19, 2004
The Omni Hotel

Meet and Greet/Cash Bar	5:30-6:30
Dinner	6:30-7:30
Program	7:30-8:30
Coffee/Book Signing*	8:30-10:00

Her topic will be "Feminism 101"

Ms. Steinem will discuss the politics of gender, education and origins of the hierarchy and violence. She will also address the central issue of how we move into a new century and foster a spirit of cooperation to continue the advancement of the rights of all citizens, especially our children, and will further discuss how all communities can empower themselves.

Cost: $30 per person $ 300 table of ten

Please send your reservation and check payable to Jacksonville Women's Network. Reservations must be paid in advance. Seating and tables will be assigned on a first come, first paid basis. If you are sharing a table with another member, please include details with your check.

This is an open meeting. Members may invite others who would like to share an evening of networking and fun. The number of participants is limited so send your reservations in quickly.

*Ms Steinem's books will be available for sale

****

RESERVATION FORM

Make check payable to JWN. Mail $ 30 per person or $ 300 per table to: Jacksonville Women's Network, PO Box 47078, Jacksonville, FL 32247, to be received no later that February 15, 2004. For questions or concerns, contact our secretary, Patti Chapman at 282-9294 or jxwntwrk@aol.com or Reservations Coordinator, Carol Baumer at 308-2020 or carol@visionispriceless.org

Member Name _____

_____ Number of reservations Check Total _____ ($30 per person)
_____ ($300 per table)