57

ask

wouldn't request; teach women could

no abortion

no retirement for women in militia

UF would not admit women to law or medical

husband's name for

married

would be classified by male; women

wanted

such as

May Louise's mother

banner?

celebrate women's equality!

Jan Brown photographer

FAX

at end, see join all procession to cemetery; picnic

Since the demonstration was scheduled for the afternoon, that gave us time to have our hair done, time to work at the the afternoon of August 26, 1970 was a big, normal, late summer day. The start of the Women's Movement.

On that bright summer day of August 26, 1970, we were nervous and determined, somewhat fearful. We were about to take a step into a future we had never anticipated. We were sure to make a statement we thought important. We didn't know we were going to change the world.
Setup of platform

Pam will play boom box at 8:45 music

Louise will sing Turn Turn.

Among those present were