SCOTT MADDOX

THE LEADER Scott Maddox is Mayor of the Capital City of the nation's fourth largest state. In 2000, Maddox demonstrated strong statewide leadership when he served as President of the Florida League of Cities. Among his many duties as Mayor, he also administers the City Attorney's Office and oversees the Tallahassee Police Department, a nationally recognized law enforcement agency. Maddox's vision and dedication helped Tallahassee earn the prestigious national title of "All America City" in 1999.

THE FIGHTER Scott Maddox does more than talk about fighting discrimination and protecting individual rights, he's doing something about it. Maddox implemented the Mayor's Initiative on Race Relations, a model which has received national distinctions, and is now being duplicated across the country.

THE PERSON The son of two Police Officers, Scott Maddox was born and raised in Miami-Dade County before moving to Tallahassee. He graduated from the Florida State University College of Law where he was a member of an award winning Moot-Court team. He and his wife Sha, a former school teacher, have two sons, Jack and Denver.

THE CANDIDATE Scott Maddox is running for Attorney General because he understands Florida and its citizens. Maddox has visited all 405 cities in our great state and has the vision, leadership, courage and compassion needed to be the advocate for everyday Floridians, and fight for your rights on a statewide basis.

THE TEAM Be a part of a team that is going to make a difference for the people of our great state. Join Scott Maddox's team by visiting his website at www.scottmaddox.com and learn how you can become a part of Florida's future.
