Who Will Be a Witness for the Children?

Children can't vote. They don't make campaign contributions. Children cannot serve as convention delegates.

Yet delegates can speak out for children, not just every four years, but every day as leaders in their states and communities.

You are invited to join in a "A Moral Witness for Children," a special interfaith worship service, with The Reverend Joan Brown Campbell, General Secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ; Rabbi Jerome Epstein, Executive Vice-President of the United Synagogue

Sunday
July 12, 1992
2:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Ramada Penta Hotel

of America; Marian Wright Edelman, President of the Children's Defense Fund; and religious leaders and other delegates who care about children.

A Moral Witness for Children is a time to lift a united moral voice and proclaim that we will Leave No Child Behind.
