

Jacksonville Human Rights Commission
40th Anniversary Celebration
"Change Happened Here!"

1967-2007

This song is offered in tribute to the men and women who have served and now serve with courage and distinction as members of the Jacksonville Human Rights Commission.

MAKE THEM HEAR YOU

L. Ahrens & S. Flaherty – From Ragtime

As performed by: Three Mo' Tenors
(Duane A. Moody, Victor Robertson & James Berger)

Go out and tell the story, let it echo far and wide.
Make them hear you . . . make them hear you.
How justice was our battle, and how justice was denied.
Make them hear you . . . make them hear you.

And say to those who blame us for the way we chose to fight;
That sometimes there are battles that are more than black or white.
And I could not put down my sword when justice was my right.
Make them hear you . . .

Go out and tell the story to your daughters and your sons.
Make them hear you . . . make them hear you.
And tell them, in our struggles, we were not the only ones.
Make them hear you . . . make them hear you.

Your sword can be a sermon or the power of the pen.
Teach every child to raise his voice; and then, my brothers, then . . .
Will justice be demanded by ten million righteous men?
Make them hear you . . . make them hear you . . . when they hear you,
I'll be near you . . . again.
