Critical Thinking

"You see, but you do not observe; that is the distinction." Sherlock Holmes to Watson

I. Definition
   A. Practical Affairs
   B. Analyzing for Understanding
      1. Analysis
      2. Improvement
   C. Action

   It is not enough to be able to analyze a thing or situation one must be able to react to it.

   Examples: 2 pencils

II. Application: Everything
   A. Sources of Information
      1. News reports
      2. Source listings
   B. Arguments
      1. Editorials
      2. Letters
      3. Campaign speeches
C. Dangers
1. magazine ads
2. TV commercials
3. movie trailers

D. Situations
1. Buying, purchasing goods, services
2. Medical Advice

E. People
1. time
2. aggression
3. beauty

emotion natural

Fact: Design plays a greater role than emotion; culture

writing usually deals with emotion