

REQUIREMENTS FOR COMPLETION OF EDU 502

As you are aware, attendance is mandatory and promptness is expected.

The items on this paper are a tentative listing of the required work necessary for successful completion of this course.

Presentations to the class, will include, but are not limited to:

1. A two and one half to three and one half-minute original speech
(Delivered on September 14, 1998)
2. Two speeches to persuade
3. Group Discussion work based on a controversial topic
(The final Group product will be individual presentations)
4. A 30-minute lecture for the final examination
(Included will be distribution of packets to the class)

Other requirements include, but are not limited to:

1. Weekly self-graded tests
2. Reading and discussion of the text, Aristotle's The Rhetoric
3. Reading and discussion of the Speech 2600 text,
Principles of Speech Communication,
Thirteenth Brief Edition, by Bruce E. Gronbeck,
Kathleen German, Douglas Ehninger, and Alan Monroe
4. Other readings as assigned
5. Completion of a journal detailing your experience as a student in speech class