STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION SENATE LEGISLATION

Number SR 91F-669

WHEREAS, the State of Florida ranks forty-ninth in per-capita spending per student in higher educational spending, and spends less than half the national average per student on higher education; and

WHEREAS, the recent budget cuts have disabled the State University System, and further cuts will cause permanent damage to the State University System and the University of North Florida; and

WHEREAS, it is the charge of the Governor, the Cabinet, and the Legislature of the State of Florida to properly care for and adequately fund the state; and

WHEREAS, it is further the responsibility of the Governor, the Cabinet, and the Legislature of the State of Florida to accurately represent the needs of those people residing in the State of Florida; and

WHEREAS, the budget cuts already called for by the Governor, the Cabinet, and the Legislature of the State of Florida have unacceptably handicapped the University of North Florida's ability to provide a quality education for its students; and

WHEREAS, the Student Government Association represents the needs and concerns of the students of the University of North Florida;

PAGE TWO

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Student Government Association of the University of North Florida strongly opposes the recent budget cuts and future cuts from the State University System as a solution to the state budget crisis; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Student Government Association of the University of North Florida strongly encourages the Governor, the Cabinet, and every member of the Florida Legislature to recognize and respond to the need to halt damaging budget cuts to the State University System; and

BE IT FURTHERMORE RESOLVED, that the Student Government Association of the University of North Florida urges the Governor, the Cabinet, and every member of the Florida Legislature to strongly oppose any new taxes or tax increases and to responsibly manage revenues in the existing budget; and

LET IT FINALLY BE RESOLVED, that the Student Government Association of the University of North Florida urges the Governor, the Cabinet, and every member of the Florida Legislature to appropriately manage the budget of the State of Florida and to adequately provide revenue for our state and its heretofore great State University System, including the University of North Florida.
