Whereas

The University of North Florida Student Government Association has operated under Standing Rule 88S-417, which reads as follows:

I. Question and Answer Period

1. A ten (10) minute question and answer period will be allowed following the introduction of legislation. During this ten (10) minute period, a call for the previous question will not be allowed.

2. If the Chair should feel that a piece of legislation should be allowed more than ten (10) minutes for the question and answer period, he/she will announce this prior to the introduction of the legislation.

II. Debate Period

1. After a motion is made and seconded, the mover shall have the opportunity to debate his/her motion. During this period an individual will specify if his/her debate is "positive" or "negative".

2. The Chair will let the floor alternate as far as possible between those favoring and those opposing the motion.

3. An individual is allowed ten (10) minutes of debate for each time he/she is recognized by the Chair. Before the second time the individual may speak to an issue, the Chair must ask if there is anyone who has not spoken that would like to speak. If not, the individual may speak again.

4. An individual may not speak to an issue more than two (2) times.

5. After all debate has been heard, the Chair will immediately ask for a vote. All votes must be hand votes, unless otherwise requested.

III. Obtaining the Floor

1. To claim the floor, an individual must raise his/her hand when no one else has the floor.

2. If the member is entitled to the floor at the time, the Chair will recognize him/her by announcing his/her name. (Example: President Walker, Senator Kennedy.)

3. Any member may yield the floor to any guest by stating the guest's name and title.

a. Collectively, the member and the guest must stay within the ten (10) minute debate period.

b. Yielding the floor will count as one (1) of the two (2) times an individual is allowed to debate on the same issue.
