BOB GRAY

FOR
UNITED STATES CONGRESS

MEET BOB GRAY

Succeeding In Business

Bob Gray, through hard work and determination, embodies the American dream. From humble origins and meritorious service in the military, he has risen to become a successful executive and owner of several businesses. Gray began his business career as a laborer and clerk and rose to become president of his own grocery market chain.

Serving Our Country

Bob Gray answered our Nations call by serving two tours of active combat duty in Vietnam and was highly decorated for his service and valor. Gray currently serves as a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army Reserve.

Actively Improving His Community

Bob Gray has shown genuine dedication to his community through his lifetime of active participation in community service projects and activities: Chairman, United Way; Board of Directors of his local YMCA, United Way and Boy Scout Chapter; Coach of little league, football, soccer and basketball teams, as well as a scoutmaster for nine years; Lay minister in his local church.
