Dear Mrs. Clinton:

I enjoyed talking with you at the Florida Democratic Convention in Orlando last December.

I would like to encourage you to accept the invitation that Annette Van Howe extended to you to attend the reception of the Florida Women's Consortium which will be held at the Old Capitol Building in Tallahassee, Florida, Monday, February 10, from 5PM to 7PM.

The Consortium is really a coalition of pro choice groups, counting among its organizational memberships:

- Business and Professional Women (BPW)
- American Association of University Women (AAUW)
- National Organization for Women (NOW)
- Florida Women's Political Caucus (FWPC)
- Older Women's League
- Mayor's Commissions on the Status of Women
- Etc.,

Since these women have large constituency groups within the state, I believe it would be beneficial to our campaign and would positively affect the vote on Super Tuesday.

I know that your time is, to understate it, tightly scheduled; however, I feel this would be a valuable use of that precious asset.

I look forward to seeing you again. And I hope that I can again host a reception for the Governor when he returns to Jacksonville.

The response to your appearance on "60 Minutes" has been most positive here in Jacksonville. The response to the negative publicity has been most positive. The community has taken a position of defending you and the Governor against yellow journalism.

Sincerely yours,
