NETWORK '96

Sponsored by the
WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP FORUM
of the
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Network '96 is a new organization created by the Women's Leadership Forum - itself a strong new force within the Democratic Party. Members of Network '96 are part of a national network of women committed to re-elect Clinton/Gore, regain control of Congress, and elect Democratic candidates at every level. Each Network '96 member will be included in a Network '96 reception and a DNC training program in support of grassroots organization.

The Women's Leadership Forum, founded in 1993, has created new opportunities for women who are leaders in their communities to become active in the Democratic Party at the national level. The WLF has been impressively successful in raising money for the DNC, and WLF members have built an important nationwide network that continues to grow and strengthen.

The party has benefited from a fresh infusion of women's ideas, energy, abilities, and resources. Through the WLF, more women have come together to participate in the political process in a direct and significant way. WLF members have discovered the empowerment that comes from working with women who share their values and aspirations. In addition to Network '96 events, full membership in the Women's Leadership Forum includes issues briefings in Washington, D.C., special receptions, and a quarterly newsletter.
