NIGERIA'S CHIEF LIBRARIAN CHECKS OUT BOOKS AT BCBSF'S CORPORATE LIBRARY

- WHO: Patricia Idahosa, chief librarian of the Lagos Business School in Nigeria
- WHAT: International Resource Center Jacksonville (IRCJ) is hosting Idahosa's visit as she examines resources at Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida's Corporate Library.
- WHERE: BCBSF's Corporate Library, 8900 Freedom Commerce Parkway
- WHEN: Thursday, July 18 at 10 a.m.
- WHY: Idahosa is studying the use of information systems technology in the American academic and private sectors. Her visit is in conjunction with the United States Information Agency's International Visitors Program, which sponsors young men and women who are expected to fill prominent roles in their nations' futures.

Information gained by Idahosa will be put into practice at the Lagos Business School, which is the premier training institute for business management in Nigeria. Idahosa is a member of the Nigerian Library Association, the Nigeria Institute of Management and the Institute of Management Consultants of Nigeria.
